

Mariners 2-1 over Acton

By ALEX TOUGH
Herald Special

The Ancient Mariners had a few key players missing for their Acton visit. In spite of that, a good game developed between two hard playing squads before a late Ivan Bird goal sealed a 2-1 win, the first goal coming from Alex Tough.

John Borsten made a superb save to break the Acton hearts (mine was in my mouth). Meanwhile Meteor were catching up some goal difference with a 7-1 romp over SWM, who had been looking good recently. Third place Eagles were idle as ICCM conceded their game due to a shortage of players just making the minimum number and declining to play.

Second division results are not known other than Vikings over Ajax, 1-0; and MFM over Bracken by 4-3.

Professional sports can take a real beating sometimes. Wolverhampton, more than 100 years in existence as a first class club were saved from extinction only minutes from a financial deadline by former player Derek Dougan, a Northern Ireland international.

And, English and European champions, Liverpool, lost money last season - some $200,000. NASL, NFL and NHL clubs are not the only ones having problems with finances, it appears. A sign of our times, folks.

Senior Falcons tied for first

The Georgetown senior Falcons soccer club of the Toronto and District League gained four points in the standings after two solid wins over the weekend.

The Falcons were in Brampton Friday night for a game against Neerlandia which ended up in a 7-0 romp for Georgetown. Alex Tough Jr. had two goals, supported with singles by Ray Cox, Ian Wilde, Steve Robbins,

Gary Lockwood and Doug Thompson. "They held us for about a half-hour, but with two quick goals we led 3-0 at half-time," coach Sam Inglis said.

Sunday the Falcons travelled to Oakville to challenge the Croatian White Eagles. The Bronte Park game was hampered with rain showers, but Georgetown went ahead 3-0 in the first twenty minutes. The game ended

4-2 for the Falcons.

With the wet conditions and the absence of two regulars from the defensive back four, the defence wasn't as good as it could have been, the coach said.

Ray Cox had two goals while Alex Tough Jr. scored on a penalty shot. Dave Chapman had the other Falcon goal.

The Falcons' next home game is Monday night at 8:30 p.m. at Cedarvale Park against Europea of Oakville.
