Sports in brief

Falcons downed 1-0

The Senior Falcons of the Toronto and District Soccer League were downed 1-0 in the dying minutes of the home game against Oakville Europa Monday night at Cedarvale Park.

Coach Sam Inglis said Oakville was the best side the Georgetown Falcons have played thus far into the season.

The local club was tied for first place in the 10-team division while Oakville stand in third spot.

Inglis said the difference in the game was Oakville's goalkeeper who played good position.

Georgetown had their share of good chances to score, he said.

Ladies Powderpuff

The Georgetown Ladies Powderpuff league are holding their annual year-end tournament Saturday, August 28 at the Georgetown Fairgrounds.

The gala event will be kicked off with a celebrity challenge match Friday night August 27 at 7:30.

The coaches and managers of the girls' teams will be pitted against the heavy bats and witticisms of the Toronto Sun Flashers, a motley bunch of meddling media jocks out to knock Georgetown off the Powderpuff map.

The Toronto Sun team will consist of Rolf Timstad, Bruce Huff, Mike Stinson plus the possibility of Jim O'Leary, Mary Omsby and John McClements making an appearance.

McClements used to work at the Georgetown-Halton Hills Herald in the 1960s, before moving on to the Sun.

Coach and tournament spokesman Rick Brasby promises an entertaining match for the local side against the Flashers.

For the girls' tournament starting Saturday, 24 teams are expected.

The ten Georgetown squads are entered along with three teams from Acton and three teams from Heart Lake. Smith and Stone managed to enter a team along with a Bell Canada (Toronto) team.

Erin has two teams competing while single entries are: Rockwood, Ballinafad, Wasaga B's and Burlington.

Come out and help support your local favorite at the Georgetown Fairgrounds August 28 all day with the celebrity game Friday night. Rain date for the tournament will be August 29.

Intercounty league winds down tonight

The Inter County league winds up the first division program this evening all being well. At Cedarvale at 7 p.m. Ancient Mariners take on Meteor White in what may well decide first place.

Should Mariners win they will take the title of league winners. Should they tie or lose then the second match will decide the first place.

In the second match of the day Eagles visit Meteor Blues, and this result will become all important if the first game is a tie or Mariner defeat. Mariners and Blue go into the arena tied with 17 points. Mariners lead by virtue of taking three points from four against Blue, and this is the deciding factor in the event of a points tie at the end of the night.

At the other end, SWM and ICCM play for last place in the seven team division. SWM have a one point advantage. No matter what happens Acton finish in fourth spot. Meteor Blue can be upset in their quest for the first place should Eagles provide a victory.

In the event of an Eagles win, the Mariners take the title no matter the result in their game earlier. Eagles finish in third place no matter the result of their game.
