Pewees play tough!

The Pee Wee-Bantam House League series is over with the Town and Country Twins coming out on top. Their fine record of 16 wins and only four losses is an excellent indication of the enthusiasm of coach Derek Williams throughout the season.

The Royal Pizza Tigers finished second, coming on very strong near the end of the series. The Dary Queen Dodgers won 11 games to finish third.

Watch out for D.Q. in the playoffs. They are out to win! The Toronto-Dominion Bank Braves, the Fobert Phillies and Optimist Orioles placed 4th, 5th and 6th respectively.

We are now into our round robin finals to be played at Joseph Gibbons Park on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays.

The competition is tough and it is anybody's guess who will be the top two teams competing on Championship Day at the Fairgrounds on Monday, September 6th at 5 p.m. Come on out and support KIDS!

Sports in brief

Merchants slump

The Glen Merchants of the Intercounty fastball league were crowned league champions last week with four games remaining in the schedule.

But the league trophy the Glen Williams team collected didn't intimidate the Cambridge Colonels last Tuesday night as the Merchants were ousted 5-4 by their opponents.

The playoffs will probably start in one week for the Glen men, but the team has been sluggish, coach Bud Haines said.

It's hard for the players to get motivated when they've already won the league title, he said.

Sunday night the Merchants played Alton in an away contest and they beat them 15-4.

Red Devils out

Ups and downs

work of coach Kevin Burke and the tireless efforts of the players, the Eagles proved to us all they were a quality team with lots of future potential.

Hopefully with the continuation of the Eagles, the Georgetown Baseball Association can strengthen their bantam program so that players will see they have an eventual goal in their late years: to become an Eagle!

When a team is sensitive about their losses, it becomes a chore for a sportswriter to try and downplay defeats and receive accurate information while maintaining a sense of healthy proportion when the teams win (ie. don't be surprised when they win).

It was a valiant try by the Rep Junior Girls fastball team, the Red Devils, to attempt a resurgence in competitive ball by forming a new team to take the place of the Intermediate Royalette girls this season.

Taking up the slack on Tuesday nights, the Red Devils happened into a similar situation plaguing the Georgetown Eagles: playing against established teams with veteran players in baseball centres five times greater in population.

Teams with smaller populations have to make up their differences by working harder, longer.

Still, both the Eagles and Red Devils only won enough games between them this season to add up to 10 games.

In sum, the baseball teams of Georgetown had their ups and downs, but few surprises this year. We'll have to wait to see what happens next summer. But don't forget the Merchants in the playoffs - they are expected to win, remember!
