

Men's slow-pitch ball

By BILL LANE
Herald Special
With only one week remaining in regular season Men's Slow-Pitch play, it appears as if Park Lincoln would win the league championship title for 1982.

The only other position that has been clarified is second place which is held by Random Car Club. All other positions could change - Choice Air has two games remaining as do the Jaycees.

The Kinsmen and Firefighters also have games to their credit. In game action Tuesday August 17 Park Lincoln had their hands full but managed to hang on to beat the Newfoundland Club by a 10-9 score.

The Lion's club and Choice Air tied 11-11 while the Kinsmen and Royal Pizza did likewise in a 9-9 finish.

Random Car Club outlasted the Newfoundland Club 6-4 while Park Lincoln powered their way to a 8-2 victory over the Firefighters. The Elks defeated the Jaycees 14-9.

Scheduled games for August 29 are as follows: 9 a.m. on Diamond B Random play Park Lincoln. On Diamond C the Jaycees play Choice Air. At 10:30 a.m., Diamond B, the Elks play Royal Pizza while the Kinsmen play the Newfoundland Club on Diamond C.

At 12 noon on Diamond B the Lions play the firefighters.
