

Florida honeymoon for Marie, Larry

Herald Special
On July 17, 1982 Marie Simonyi and Larry Louth were wed in a double ring ceremony at Knox Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Leslie and Anna Simonyi of Georgetown and the groom is the son of George Louth and the late Elizabeth Louth and stepson of Marie Louth, (also of Georgetown).

The bride, escorted down the aisle by her father, wore a floor-length, pearl buttoned empire lace and chiffon gown embroidered to the waist with tiny pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of pink silk roses, white stephanotis, lilac and white violets decorated with baby's breath.

Betty Simonyi and Anna White, sisters of the bride, and Heather Louth, sister of the groom, attended the bride wearing lilac colored Victorian-style gowns. Lisa Bower, the groom's niece, was flowergirl and wore a crepe and chiffon lilac print dress. The bridesmaids and flowergirl carried silk bouquets of violets, pink carnations and daisies. The groom and his attendants, Rick Quanbury - best man, Gary Louth and John Lavioie - brother and stepbrother of the groom, and Michael Hynes - cousin of the bride - and ring bearer were attired in grey tuxedos and white ruffled shirts.

The reception was held at Sacre Coeur Hall, where Colonel John R. Barber honored the bride and groom as master of ceremonies.

The mother of the bride received guests in a floor-length pink crepe and chiffon dress accented by rhinestones at the waist. The stepmother of the groom wore a peach colored pleated gown with removable cape. Their corsages of pink and peach roses and orchids complemented an already elegant picture.

Guests attended from Campbellford, Toronto, Acton, Georgetown and as far away as British Columbia. The bride and groom were very pleased that Terezia Simonyi, the bride's grandmother, and George Louth Sr., the groom's grandfather, were able to attend.

Prior to the wedding the bride was honored at four showers. Sandra Hornby, friend of the bride, Sophia Henley, friend and employer of the bride, Sharon Hale, also a friend, and Cathy Pryde, cousin of the bride, all gave her miscellaneous showers.

The groom was given a stag by Rick Quanbury, his best man, and Mr. and Mrs. George Louth hosted a get-together for the members of the wedding party the evening prior to the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Louth honeymooned in Florida and now reside in Georgetown.

Looking For Mr. Good Job
Industry recruiters, those who scour college campuses looking for prospective engineers, chemists and accountants, have rated the Texas A&M placement office the best among major western universities. Between 35,000 and 40,000 job interviews were handled through the office last year.

LEGION LINES

By GREG BALL
877-3985

Stacey. Due to illness Ed Barker retired, and Bert Parr became secretary.

That year seems to have passed quietly and quickly with members constantly improving and adding to their furnishings. Entertainments and card parties were numerous. The main problem that year seemed to be the collection of dues... it seemed that a large number were always "in arrears". By far the largest sum of money was raised by the entertainment committee, the auditor showing a balance of $181.43, with arrears of dues totalling $90. Total receipts for the year were $500!

The legion bowling starts Sept. 8 at 8:45 p.m. New bowlers are welcome.

New golf date Sept. 5. If you cannot attend cross your name off the list and your green fees will be returned.

Entertainment this Saturday, The Arrow. Corn Roast also Saturday.

This weekend it was the pleasure of Branch 120 to host visitors from Plymouth, Massachusetts Post 40. We took great delight in having them accompany us while marching in the Warrior's Day Parade at the CNE. Special thanks to Bill Murphy and Phil Rankin from Post 40 for helping to make this one of our most memorable parades. With the combined effort of the Legion Pipe Band, color party and our visitors this parade was a tremendous success.

Car Club Winners: Aug. 19, 455 Carl Chesney, 106 Gord Terry, 94 Brim and Helen Bastedo, 214 Ed Patterson, 90 Mildred Hebert, 67 Dave Osborne.

July 3 Lieutenant Colonel John W. Foote, VC, CD, was honored by Branch 580 Grafton R.C.L. when they dedicated their Legion in his name. One of only 16 Canadians and the only padre to receive the Victoria Cross.

History of Branch 120: The first Christmas tree was held Dec. 22, 1923, with Comrade C.J. Cummins as chairman. Members of the Auxiliary were also included, all the children under the age of 12 receiving a visit from Santa. Membership dues for that year were 50 cents.

The annual general meeting was held March 14, 1929, with G. Cousins returned as president, J.D. Kelly and C.V. Williams as vice presidents, Nelson Tuck, treasurer, and Alvin McDonald, Sgt-at-arms. Committees consisted of: entertainment H. Shepherd; house, G.O. Brown; investigation, Jack Murray and Dr. Bob Learmonth; sports, Cliff
