DRG Stationery ladies in finals

Georgetown fastball team challenging for Intercounty crown

The DRG Stationery Georgettes eliminated Erin in two games to advance to the Intercounty girls fastball finals.

The local ladies now advance against Hillsburgh for the championship crown in a best three of five series beginning next Wednesday. Hillsburgh ousted Orangeville in the other semi-final 3-1.

The Georgettes outplayed Erin in the first game, 6-2 then downed their opponents 5-2 in the third game. In the second game the DRG Stationery team were ousted by Erin 5-0.

The third game Wednesday resulted in a 5-2 Georgetown victory. Gayle Harlow scored the first run in the first inning, hit home by Debbie Sandifer's double.

In the second inning Sue Smarda tripled and Colleen Cadger doubled but no runs were scored.

Linda George hit for a home run in the third inning, but the local ladies were idle in the fourth.

The team exploded for three runs in the fifth inning off hits from Gayle Harlow, Linda George, Janet MacKay and Carol Spiteri.

Hitting in the seventh inning were Linda George with a double and Debbie Sandifer with a single.

Erin scored their two runs in the sixth and seventh inning.

In Monday's game of the Erin series, Georgetown were blanked by their opponents 5-0.

Gayle Harlow had an impressive night for the DRG Stationery ladies, going 2 for 2 at bat while walking once, stealing a base and hitting for a triple.

Carol Spiteri and Janet MacKay were both 2 for 3 at bat for Georgetown.

Armstrong Collision pitcher Chris Peavoy lets go with a 'smoker'. Shortstop Mike McCandless stands ready in the background.

Glen dump Orangeville

Even though the Glen Williams Merchants weren't hitting aggressively, they swept their quarter-final playoff series against Orangeville Tuesday night.

Co-coach Cliff Norton felt his charges weren't aggressive at bat, but with help from Jeff Haines on the mound, the Glen men beat Orangeville in the third game of the best of three series 2-1.

It was a classic Glen come-from-behind victory when Lester Wilson chopped a bunt which scored the man from third base for the winning run.

The Orangeville team were leading 1-0 until the bottom of the ninth.

"It was a tough one for Orangeville to lose," Norton said.

The Merchants were short four players from their roster which didn't allow them to use their designated hitter, a play which has worked well for them in the past.

Glen Merchants

Orangeville had more men on base throughout the game than the Glen did, Norton said.

The Merchants now advance to the semi-finals against an unknown team.

The other playoff series are still underway and may not finish until Tuesday night.

The Merchants might play next week, but the playoff schedule won't be known until the other series are over.

One team that could be the playoff dark horse is Cambridge Junior who have won both their games against Rockwood in their series, Norton said.

Armstrong Collision have tied their series with M and M Pro Sports at one game each. Here an Armstrong baserunner scores against M and M last Monday at the Fairgrounds.

Glen Oldtimers

Glen Williams Oldtimers represented themselves well Saturday and Sunday by winning the consolation trophy in their own tournament hosting eight fastball teams.

Georgetown opened the tournament with their game against Scarborough which the locals won 10-1.

Acton edged past Rexdale for their first win while Glen Williams gave the fans a game to cheer about with a 5-0 blanking of Malvern.

Bramalea proved why they were a championship team early in the tournament by downing Limehouse 15-1.

Scarborough ousted Rexdale 8-5 while Acton took ten innings to dispose of Georgetown. The Acton-Georgetown contest was tied at 2-2 until the ninth inning.

Milt Ball for Acton hit Gary Masales in for the winning Acton run.

The Glen finally met Bramalea and were defeated 10-4. Georgetown then dumped Scarborough 6-0 to avenge their Acton loss.

John Holby for the Glen Oldtimers proved why he earned the tournament's Most Valuable Player award by recording a 5-0 shutout against Malvern.

Bramalea ousted Acton 6-2 in the championship contest after Acton had led 2-0 at one point.

Golf tourney for drug abuse

The Optimist Service Club of Georgetown are planning to host a golf tournament Tuesday September 14 at Georgetown Golf and Country Club.

Organizer Jim Ferguson said the proceeds will go to the Optimist's Drug Abuse program. The tournament, which Ferguson hopes will lure some 200 golfers including many celebrities, features a steak dinner and "prize galore".

Ferguson is the co-chairman of the Optimist drug abuse committee and the Optimist's vice-president (elect). He says the tournament will probably be the last local golf tournament of the season.

The entry fee is $35 and the closing date for registering for the tournament will be September 7. Contact Jim Ferguson at 877-3878 for more information.
