The Brampton Glass Van squad won the Georgetown Powderpuff Invitational softball tournament last Saturday, defeating Georgetown's own Burgundy Bares 18-14.

In the consolation round it was the Moody Blues of Georgetown who lost to the Acton Marauders in a 19-4 battle.

There were 24 teams attending the tournament, preceded by a friendly exhibition match between the Toronto Sun Flashers and the Powderpuff coaches Friday night. The Sun reported a 15-1 victory in their paper, but more knowledgeable sports buffs would contest the score.

In the first round, the Heart Lake Shockers rocketed to a 15-10 win over the Georgetown Orioles. The Ballinafad Ladies were the victors over the Heart Lake Northern Alarm squad 7-5 while Burgundy Bares won against Heart Lake One-Stop 10-6.

CLOSE GAME

An exciting 15-15 tie between the Beige Brigade and L'Bats Blue was eventually decided by the most people left on base (L'Bats).

The Erin Legion edged past the Acton Marauders 10-8 as the Acton Curling Club downed Black Magic 12-10.

Cox Excavating ousted Hot Stuff 9-6 as the Corn Niblets stomped over Beaver Lumber Wasaga 25-0.

Brampton Glass Van were equally as awesome against Smith and Stone of Georgetown by virtue of their 29-1 score. Bell Canada did not show up for their game with L and L Ford.

The Rockwood No-Stars looked bright against the Moody Blues in defeating the local Georgetown side 18-10.

SECOND ROUND

L and L Ford from Acton looked sharp in their first game of the tournament by dumping Rockwood 29-3.

Glass Van from Brampton ousted Corn Niblets 8-5 while Cox Excavating outlasted the Skylarks 17-5.

The Acton Curling Club and the Legion Ladies from Erin battled to a 5-5 tie while the Burgundy Bares outmaneuvered L'Bats Blue 19-8. Ballinafad were lucky against the Shockers, coming out with a 11-10 win over their opponents. Beaver Lumber were winners over Smith and Stone while Hot Stuff burned Green Bay Hackers 6-3.

The Acton Marauders were victorious over the Black Magic squad 7-1 as the Beige Brigade outthit One Stop 15-6.

The Orioles were the big winners against Northern Alarm in their 14-8 contest.

ROUND THREE

Brampton Glass Van continued their string of victories by edging L and L Ford of Acton 13-12. The Acton Curling Club escaped with a victory over Cox Excavating 7-6.

The Burgundy Bares edged past Ballinafad 11-10 as the Moody Blues and Beaver Lumber fought to a 9-7 win for the Blues.

The Acton Marauders outlasted the Hot Stuff squad 12-8 while the Orioles defeated the Beige Brigade 11-8.

ROUND FOUR

The Burgundy Bares overpowered the Acton Curling Club 28-6 while the Moody Blues won over the Orioles 12-9. Glass Van and the Marauders got a bye in the round.

Eddie Shack

By Jamie Morgan

Ever mindful of our need to provide an outlet for sports comments from the public, we felt when 13-year-old Jamie Morgan from Stewarttown approached us on doing a story on Eddie Shack, we couldn't refuse.

The following is Jamie's story after an informal interview with the NHL great, Eddie Shack, at Zellers department store Saturday.

EDDIE SHACK'S VISIT TO ZELLERS

It was alot of fun for Georgetown youngsters, teens and parents as Eddie Shack autographed Cooper Official Hockey Pucks. Eddie Shack gave over 25 pucks to Georgetown families.

We talked to Eddie Shack on Saturday and we asked him why he came to Zellers. He replied, "I'm doing a promotion for the Pop Shoppe". We asked him if he liked Georgetown and he said he thought it was a nice little town.

He said he lives in Toronto with his wife and two kids. In Toronto he has a hockey school, Christmas tree lots, and does all sorts of commercials. In Toronto he owns a golf course.

We asked him what he was going to do after and he said he was going back to Toronto to teach hockey and then to Sudbury to play in a golf tournament.

Eddie Shack played over 1,000 games in the NHL and scored 250 goals and played 17 years in the NHL and had quite a few penalties.

I hope Eddie Shack don't get mad for telling Georgetown this, but he told us that he didn't have a very good education because he only went up to grade four.

Well that's all the information I got and I hope you liked it - Herald's soon to be reporter
