

Fall fair parking? No problem!

Parking can be a real problem in and around Fairgrounds Park tonight (Friday) through Sunday while the Georgetown fall fair is underway - unless you know where to go. Regular fair visitors and exhibitors can park their vehicles inside the grounds by entering via the Parkview Drive route (far side of the track from the Armoury). If you're competing in the Kinsmen Girls Softball tournament going on all weekend, use the Hyde Park Avenue entrance near Park School (not the Park Avenue entrance as stated in our Wednesday supplement).

Norvalites enjoy tour

By KAY WILSON

Gertrude McGee of RR1, Norval and her sister Doris of Weston enjoyed a 15-day tour of England, Wales and Scotland recently.

A United Church minister from Winnipeg who was given the trip as a retirement gift proved to be the life of the party. Two other couples from Ontario as well as several people from the U.S. and Australia were among the group of 30.

Picking up their bus in London, they saw the Changing of the Guards at Buckingham Palace, but because of the bomb scare they missed seeing the parade as it takes a different route each day. At Stratford on Avon, they saw a play by Shakespeare.

Touring Wales they were impressed with their Fresian cattle and every hillside was dotted with flocks of sheep.

On up to Scotland they spent two nights in Edinburgh and at Chester saw the Roman Walls, built by the Romans, of dry walling only (without mortar). They saw Robbie Burns' birthplace and took in a Scottish night in his honor.

The tour took them through several cathedrals, beautiful architecture and lovely stained glass windows.

They stayed in lovely hotel rooms, complete with facilities to make your own coffee or tea, and the beautiful scenery of the English countryside and Scottish highlands made for a great trip.

Grace May RR2 Hornby along with her cousin June McDuffe of Rockwood had a weeks holiday when they went with the Hanover Tours to Newfoundland.

They flew to Stevensville, the site of a Canadian Air Force Base and took the bus from there to Cornerbrook built incline, with a pulp and paper industry.

Their tour followed the coastline built up of fishing villages tucked in tiny coves.

Twirlinggate was another stop where they climbed a lighthouse, electrically powered, with a supplementary system.

They drove through Joey Smallwood's farms which has a piggery on one side and a poultry operation on the other.

Their last stop was St. Johns which has a natural harbor just wide enough for an ocean liner to pass through and a great natural defense in time of war. Aside from the high winds, Newfoundland gets off the ocean the weather was good, and the lovely seafood dinners they serve all made for a good holiday.

A good crowd attended the corn roast at Carl Laidlaw on last Tuesday for the Norval United Church members. Hamburgs and homemade pies were also on the menu and all reported a good evening.

Sympathy is extended to Rev. Canon James E. Maxwell and Mrs. Maxwell and Mary Jean and Laurie on the death of his sister Gladys Burton of Hamilton, who passed away in Georgetown Hospital on Aug. 29. Funeral services were from St. Andrews, Presbyterian Church, Grimsby with interment in St. Andrews Church cemetery.

Sympathy is extended to the family of Betty Walker, R.R.1 Norval who passed away Sunday in Peet Memorial Hospital, Brampton. She leaves her son Wymond, daughters Shawn and Alayne, daughter-in-law, Mary and uncle Art May.

Ballinafad

W.I. resumes regular meetings

With July and August being holiday months, the W.I. resumed meetings again Sept. 1.

It was the Family and Consumer Affairs meeting. Eileen Burt, the convener, had arranged for the meeting to be held at Chudleigh's Apple Farm near Millton.

Most members had never visited this farm before and were pleasantly surprised to see that besides many apples and well kept orchards there was much more to delight both young and old.

Although it was an ideal spot for a picnic the weather was dull and rain was threatened, so after a tour through the arts and crafts room and purchasing some of the goodies for sale, the ladies journeyed back to Ballinafad to hold the meeting at the home of president Marg Jamieson.

There were 12 members present to answer the roll call by naming an apple or a fruit beginning with a letter of your Christian or surname.

When the items of business had been dealt with, Marg Jamieson and Ada Kirkwood gave a report on the 85th anniversary of the F.W.I.O. which they attended in Toronto Aug. 12.

Reggie Slessoraitis reported on the last meeting of the District Directors which told of the coming events for the W.I. The Area Convention delegates were appointed. It will be held in Arthur this fall.

A splendid motto on the topic for the month was given by Eileen McEnery.

Alma Sinclair kept the members up to date on current events. As the provinces of Canada are being studied this year in the W.I. Eleanor McLean had a brief item on British Columbia. Meeting adjourned and those in charge assisted the hostesses with the serving of a cup of tea.

Recent visitors with Cathy and Reg French were her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Tone from Damascus.

Saturday of last week Reg and Cathy attended their niece's wedding in Toronto. The bride was Patricia Tone of Toronto and the groom was Peter MacArthur from Mono Mills.

Another happy occasion for the French family was Reg's birthday when the family took their parents out to dinner.

After the dinner the party returned to their daughter and son-in-law, Cathy and Alan Smellings' home for further celebrations when they were served birthday cake and ice cream.

Those in charge of the Ballinafad soccer teams invite all players and their families to attend the annual barbeque this Saturday (Sept. 11) between 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. at Burnette's field.

There will be trophy presentations, team photographs and games, so please arrive on time. All players please wear their uniforms and boots for the photographs.

Congratulations to our major "Atom Bullets" who are through to the cup final Sept. 18. They are hoping to have a good turn-out to support the boys and cheer them on to victory.

The minor squirt team is also doing extremely well and could well be in the finals in their division.

The Ballinafad 4-H club will start their meetings again Saturday from 9 a.m. till noon, the first meeting to be at Helen Schwarz's home on Trafalgar Road. The leaders will be happy to see the girls out and will welcome their friends, this being a fun project called "Outdoor Living". Boys will be interested in this one too, between the ages of 12 and 25.

the HERALD Community St. George's 100th events planned

Herald Special
This month, St. George's Anglican Church in Georgetown celebrates the 100th anniversary of its consecration.

It was built a few years previous to 1882, and when consecrated Sept. 15 of that year by the Right Reverend Thomas Brock Fuller, Bishop of Niagara, it was debt-free.

The only changes to the church since that time have been enlargement of the chancel in 1921 and the addition of the new parish hall and offices in 1974.

Twenty-nine rectors have served the parish. The anniversary will be marked in three ways:

Friday, Sept. 17 at 6 p.m. there'll be a Parish Family Party and Barbecue on the church grounds, followed by entertainment for all age groups and an informal dance in the parish hall. Tickets are $3 for adults, $2 for 12- to 18-year olds and $1 for children under 12 (including meal.) Former parishioners are very welcome to attend.
Sunday, Sept. 19, the Rt.

Rev. John Bothwell, present Bishop of Niagara, will preach at both the 9 and 11 a.m. services. He will also dedicate several trees recently planted around the church in memory of the Rev. Roswell Tees, former rector, who died in 1981. Eileen Tees, his widow, has been invited to be present. Luncheon will follow.

On the same afternoon at 1:30 p.m. a special vestry meeting has been called which all contributing members of St. George's are expected to attend.

Considerations to be raised at the meeting are:
1. The need to raise additional funds for the betterment of St. George's Church during 1983, this includes the salary of the full-time associate priest, the Rev. Sarah Boyles, who commenced her duties this past Sept. 1.

2. The increase of secretarial hours.
3. Improvement of car parking area.
4. Approval of St. George's commitment to contribute to the National Anglicans in Mission campaign a total of $70,750 over a three-year period, beginning next spring. (This amount is over and above regular donations). Monies raised across the country are to be used for ministry and mission work in the Canadian north and overseas.
