Bowling

Gourlie repeats with an 818

For the second week in a row, Rick Gourlie, in Georgetown Bowl's Young Adult League Sunday evening, rolled another 818 triple to match his other 821.

The league has increased this week to 10 lanes and the executive says they will still accept more, with the target being 12.

Even beginners are welcome as the young Master Bowlers teachers and other top bowlers will give instruction and valuable tips to ensure their fun in bowling and comradeship.

With the Thanksgiving tournament coming up on the YABA Money Tour, the young ladies are bowling up a storm and showing up the boys overall. Sandy Cuthbert had a 693 (257), Robin Richardson 687 (258), Julie Burns 684 (286), Wendy Freeland 622 (239), and Wendy Chaplin 608 (258), all tournament bowlers.

Rick Gourlie's 818 (305) was answered by Grant Richardson's 693 (317), Larry Louth 666 (241), Mark Reis 656 (233), Bob Wilson 653 (238).

For the second week, Colin Hicks, a top shooter could not get untracked and match past performances, managing only a 527 triple. However, he is not the only slow starter, as Gary Richardson and Roger Gervais have not attained tournament form either.

CLUB TROUBADOR
The Sunday evening league, the Club Troubador, formerly Franc-Treurs has started in fine style with 8 lanes. Laurent Larocque has been a standout in league play with a 723 triple made up of games of 239-240-243.

Other notable achievements were by Garcia 657 (325), Alpha Larocque 634 (348) and Henry Goulet 634 (373).

TERESA MASLACH TOPS QUALIFIERS

After the first round of qualification for the Master-Junior tournament, Teresa Maslach heads the list with a 697 triple for the girls, while David Hicks is tops for the boys with 586. There is one more chance for other bowlers to come through and unseat the top 9 boys and girls who will form teams with a Master Bowler and continue on in the quest of regional and provincial championships.
