GDHS Rebel field hockey

By PAM DOUGLAS
Herald Correspondent
The Rebel girls played "excellent positional field hockey," said coach Ruth Peden, "but they're inexperienced. It takes a long time to develop a scoring pattern."
As a result, the juniors tied their game with Assumption last Thursday 0-0. However, they did dominate the game, said the coaches.
The seniors lost their game to Assumption 1-0 because of a lack of organization and, to a certain extent, the absence of Denoon Jones, one of the team's better players, said coach Peden.
The seniors put out good individual efforts, she said, but "as a team it wasn't very cohesive".

Rep Minor Midgets

By HAROLD GILMER
Herald Special
The Labelmaster Minor Midgets played Oakville in an exhibition game Saturday and tied their opponents 4-4.
It was a hard-hitting fast skating game. Oakville took the lead in the first period and increased the lead by two goals in the second period.
Georgetown dominated the third period as they scored two unanswered goals to tie Oakville 4-4.
Mike Lorito was sharp in net in the late part of the game. Stephen made several key saves in the early going.
Scoring for Georgetown were Todd Cull, Keith Reiger (2), and John Barclay. Assists were credited to John Barclay, Jamie Hodgson, Todd Cull, Howie McCarthy, Steve Turner, Mark Pustak and Paul Basha.
Our first league game is against Milton at Alcott arena Thursday, October 7 at 8:30 p.m.
