

Church screens acclaimed film this Sunday

She pulled self together with Billy Graham's help

Herald Special
"No Longer Alone" winner of three prestigious film industry awards, will be shown this Sunday at Evangel Pentecostal Tabernacle, 33 Churchill Rd., Acton. The showing, open to the public free of charge is scheduled to begin at 7 p.m.

The film, a true story, takes a close look at a woman who was searching desperately for love and acceptance, but whose cries went unheard by those who surrounded her.

Originally released by World Wide Pictures in commercial theatres, the film is now one hour in length in preparation for its eventual presentation as a television special.

No Longer Alone traces the life of an English actress, Joan Winmill Brown. Though she skyrocketed to fame on the British stage, her life was marked by a frantic grasp for personal fulfillment and love. Tormented by a past she was unable to forget, she succumbed into a series of nervous breakdowns, and, at one point, attempted to take her own life.

In her ultimate moment of despair, Joan was invited by a "chance" phone call to attend a Billy Graham crusade. It was here that she first discovered her worth as an individual and began her long struggle to piece her shattered life back together.

Those who have followed Billy Graham's ministry will be interested to know that Dr. Graham appears in the film in some of the footage of his 1954 London Crusade, and also in the introduction and conclusions to the film, photographed recently for this special version.

According to William Brown, president of World Wide Pictures, No Longer Alone was presented with the Award of Excellence from the Film Advisory Board of Hollywood, as well as the "Angel" award from Religion in Media in America, as the outstanding religion film of the year. It also received the "Silver Halo" award from the Southern California Motion Picture Council.

No Longer Alone was filmed in color on location in London, and stars Belinda Carroll, Wilfrid Hyde White, James Fox, Samantha Gates, and Gordon DeVol. Simon Williams, who has one of the leading roles in the BBC production, "Upstairs, Downstairs", also stars in the film. The title song was performed by the popular recording artist, B.J. Thomas.

Bright and glaring television lights heated up the Halton board of education's Burlington board room last Thursday night.

Trustee and vice-chairman Florence Meares came prepared for the bright lights, slipping on a thick dark pair of sunglasses.

Opening the evening meeting, chairman Len Auger welcomed television viewers to the first televised board meeting. Filmed by the Burlington Cablenet station, the meeting will only be seen on Burlington and Oakville cable stations.

Within a half hour of the meeting, Mr. Auger interrupted to say he's had a message "from outer space" requesting that trustees make sure they had their microphones on. The Cablenet crew was having audio troubles.

LEGION HISTORY
The following year, 1937, Midget NHL hockey was organized by Gordon Alcott, and captured the imagination of the local public like nothing had before or since.

Branch 120, along with Lions Club and local industries each sponsored a team, Legion entry being the Canadians. Interest was keenly shown in their proteges and in 1937 they won the league championship, and the "Stanley Cup", donated by member John B. Kelly for annual competition.

Worthy of mention is the fact that two graduates of Little NHL went to big league hockey: Bob Goldham, Detroit NHL star, and Joe Schertz in the American league.

All through these times, members mixed well with other Legions, visiting back and forth. Many friendships established then still exist in neighboring Legions.

Principal officers remained essentially the same during '37. Conditions in the community began improving and few of the members needed assistance or employment. Financially the club was in sound condition, but never showed much cash on hand as any money accumulated was immediately spent on improvements to the building as well as furnishings. At that time total worth of building and furnishings was estimated at $2,000.

Knights donate $8,500 to charity

REAL ESTATE

Herald Special
At a recent general meeting in September, the Pieta Council of the Knights of Columbus voted to commit a total of $8,500 as an initial expenditure from this year's charities fund.

As well as sponsoring a hockey team, and paying for their recent blood donor clinic, the Knights have donated $500 to the North Halton Contact Centre. Holy Cross Church received a second air cleaner for the hall, as well as an additional donation. The total amount spent was $1,150.

The main recipient at this time was the Georgetown hospital, with the Knights of Georgetown voting to spend $6,500 for the purchase of a new ice machine for the surgery ward, and two machines for the nursery — an apnea monitor and a Bill-Lite.

The funds for these projects were raised by Pieta Council at their weekly bingos held at Holy Cross Church on Thursday evenings. Since starting the charities fund in March of 1981, Pieta Council has dispersed a total of $14,665 from this fund, exclusive of the commitment to the hospital.

All but $2,000 of this has been spent within Halton Hills.

If any local group is in need of assistance, they should address their requests to the Chairman of the Charities Committee, Pieta Council Knights of Columbus, P.O. Box 71, Georgetown.
