

GCS concert approaching

community. Examples are the "Yes We C.A.N." campaign to raise funds for the Halton Hills Library Cultural Centre; benefit concerts for charitable causes such as the Chesley Hospital, Georgetown Memorial Arena, Halton Women's Place; free concerts for seniors, to attract new members, to assist area communities to celebrate special days, Christmas carols in downtown Georgetown. The list is long.

All in all, the Georgetown Choral Society is becoming increasingly well known in the surrounding area, receiving invitations to sing in neighboring communities. For example, they have been asked to sing the Messiah in Fergus Nov. 28.

In the past several years, their talents have been combined with other groups such as the Oakville Orchestra, the Toronto Youth Orchestra, the Acton Citizen's Band and many individual artists providing a variety of sound and adding interest and color to the concerts.

Since 1975, the Society has produced at least 17 concerts, ranging in style from Broadway musicals to classics such as Brahms's Requiem, the Messiah and Mass in C Major. This year, "Fantasia for Christmas" will be presented Dec. 3, 4 and 5 at the John Elliott Theatre.

The members of the Society recently held a successful garage sale to help raise the funds necessary for the production of this concert, and its success will depend on the support of the Georgetown community.

ENGAGED

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Russiani of Acton wish to announce the engagement of their daughter, Dorri Lynn, to Michael John Bland, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bland of Brampton. A July 2 wedding is planned.

He'll climb the CN Tower

Kevin McLachlan of Georgetown plans to represent his community atop Toronto's CN Tower this Sunday when he enters the United Way-CN Tower Halloween Costume Climb, sponsored by CFNY-FM radio. Entrants are expected to climb as many of the tower's 1,760 steps as they can, in full trick-or-treat regalia, after first collecting per-step pledges from supporters (for example, one cent a step would cost you $17.60). All proceeds go to the United Way of Greater Toronto, so if you'd like to help our man Kevin tackle the tower, give him a call as soon as possible at 877-5833.
