Feed 460 at supper

By Mrs. JOHN BELLBODDY Herald Correspondent 877-2195

Oct. 17 in Hillcrest Church two babies were presented for baptism: Brenna Rose, daughter of Rod and Thelma Elder, and Jason Charles, son of Debbie and Charles Zukowski. Many relatives were out for this occasion. Don't forget that magical night for the kiddies is coming up. Halloween, oh what fun. Now the Autumn's quite begun. Now the houses made of leaves, now the scariest of evens, Jack o' Lanterns light the way, for countless people bright and gay, a happy harvest time of joy, for every little girl and boy.

Wouldn't you know the night of the turkey supper was wet and nasty, but we fed at least four hundred and sixty people, they came from Brampton, Streetsville, Milton and Acton and one lady from Germany. Mrs. Geilben who is visiting her daughter Mrs. G. Treviranus and her family. Outside was wet and nasty but inside was warm and good fellowship and little four-month old Brenna Rose Elder had a smile for everyone.

Don't forget good old Standard Times come this weekend, then we can settle down for the winter.

Previous years have seen several thousand buyers flock to the church hall. Admission is 50 cents and babysitting is available for 75 cents.

St. John's Anglican Church will host a Christmas Treasure Show at the Lion's Club Hall in Campbellville Nov. 6. There'll be something for everyone. Doors open from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Proceeds go to support the Sunday School of St. John's.
