

Hocking wins award

Cliff Hocking, Sarnia has been a sports enthusiast all his life. He moved to his present city in the spring of 1954, and became involved with the local Minor Association that same year. As of the spring of 1982, he has been involved for 28 years and is still going.

He is busy every night of the week trying to better and improve conditions in Minor Hockey at the local level or on an overall scale.

In 1955 he became coach of the local O.M.H.A. Midget team and served as coach and/or manager of this team for 18 years. While in this capacity he had one (1) Ontario Championship and was in the finals of the semi-finals more often than he can remember.

He served a two (2) year term as chairman in the 1966-67 and 1967-68 seasons and again in the 1978-79 and 1979-80 seasons.
