Minor Atoms end streak

Georgetown's Minor Atom rep hockey team ended their unbeaten record last Monday night 8-4 in Orangeville.

After opening the scoring with two unassisted goals by John Cruise and Adam Hills, Orangeville rebounded with seven goals.

Adam Hills then scored his second of the night and later another major by the hosts Brad Duby ended the scoring. Shots on goal, Orangeville 28, Georgetown 19.

Tuesday in Georgetown saw Burlington jump ahead with two goals in less than one minute. Duane Lewis assisted by Peter Lee scored at 7:36 of the first period and nine seconds later Steve Brown assisted by Jason Smith evened the score.

Burlington responded with three more goals before Steve Brown added a major at 7:38 of the third period. The home team then applied pressure with shot after shot, hitting the goal posts several times.

At 9:01 Adam Hills with an assist from Duane Lewis brought Georgetown to within one point. Final shots, Georgetown 19, Burlington 17.

In Brampton Wednesday night Georgetown revenge their two defeats by downing the home team 7-3 in an exhibition game. Steve Brown opened the scoring at 1:48 of the first period assisted by Jason Smith and John Cruise.

Sean Guistini added another major seven seconds later assisted by John Cruise and Steve Brown. Brampton countered with one before the end of the first period. In the second period Jason Smith assisted by Sean Guistini scored the only goal.

The third period saw Steve Brown score his second of the night with the help of Jason Smith. Brampton countered with two majors, closing in on the score.

Duane Lewis put the game away adding two final goals one minute apart, the first unassisted and the second with the help of Adam Hills.
