

North Halton curling

By JOAN SHAPCOTT
Herald Special

Steve McDermot and his team of Mike Makovnyk, G. Shapcott and J. Massey pulled another win out of the bag this weekend. The team were at the helm of the team sponsored by Aquaflo at Chingacousy Curling Club. They defeated Bill Core from Brampton to win the bonspiel. This was a repeat match from last year where Core came out on top, but McDermot's team were prepared this year, and it was a sweet victory.

Well the Battle of the Sexes was off and running on Friday night. Playing in the final third game on Saturday was Al Dean and friends with 10 1/2 points against Joan Trimble's team with 11 points, Eric Ross with 24 points against Donna Blight with 10 1/2 points, Les Ashcroft with 9 1/2 points against Alice Frazer with 8 1/2 points and last but not least wife against hubby Julie White with 16 points against Bruce White with 23 1/2 points.

As much as I hate to say it, the guys finished first with Al Dean and teammates R. Eastwood, B. Smith and G. Madarac defeating Joan Trimble and ending up on top with 35 1/2 points. Eric Ross's team came second with 29 1/2 points, and showing for the ladies at third was Julie White with 28 1/2 points. Sorry Al, but at the White household the kitchen is up for grabs! Congratulations to all our winners and your participation.

Next week look for results on the Junior mixed team skipped by Jeff Wood who were in London this weekend, and yours truly, Joan Shapcott and my team of Julie White, Eva Bradley and Carol Evans are off to Bayview this week.
