

Tier 2 Candy Peewees in Flesh-erton

By GARY LANE
Herald Special

This past Saturday Georgetown's Candy Company Productions team travelled north to participate in the Flesh-erton PeeWee Tournament.

In what coach Pat Coulson described as a rather sleepy effort the boys came up short in a 3-1 loss to Mount Forest in their first game.

The Candymen were down 2-0 early in the third period before Danny Lane put Georgetown on the scoreboard with assists earned by linemates Glenn Mulder and Scott Cunningham.

Despite a strong game by Johnny Stefan in the Georgetown cage Mount Forest scored late in the game for their winning margin. On defense, Chris McCarthy played well for Georgetown.

Game two against Hanover was a highly emotional and exciting game with Georgetown losing once more 4-3 in overtime.

The Candy Makers found themselves behind 2-0 at the close of the first period but came back with three successive goals to take a 3-2 advantage in the middle frame. Mulder, Lane and Ted Weatherall counted the goals with assists going to Lane, John Brooker and Cunningham with a pair.

Before the period ended Hanover had tied the game and after a scoreless third period the stage was set for overtime.

Four minutes into sudden death Hanover beat Georgetown's netminder for the winner despite another good display of goaltending by Johnny Stefan.

A note of interest in this game was coach Coulson's first career bench minor to which he had a "no comment" regarding his difference of opinion with the men in black and white.

Rep Standard Products Peewees beat out Ancaster

By SID HARRIS
Herald Special

The Rep hockey Pee Wee's served up one of their 'Standard Products' last Thursday.

This kind of game we have seen before, a hard skating affair, complete domination by our side, very little or no scoring until late in the game and in this case a 2-0 win against Ancaster.

Our domination of play started with excellent deep forechecking by all three lines.

The defence as a group also played very well, containing many potential rushes in the opponents' end.

Offensively our play development is also starting to become much more effective. The only thing left is to finish off more of the many scoring chances that are generated.

In the game we had many chances, however, it wasn't until the third period when Trevor Harkley won a face off and Trent Burton's shot from the point was deflected in by John Lorito.

That goal stood up until the last minute when Ken Langdon fed a perfect pass to Alain Thibault at the blue line and his low shot from the circle just caught the corner. The team is now 7 and 2 in league play and should be very close if not actually in first place.
