

NANNY'S KNEE-DLE

Involved with crafts all her life, it was only fitting that Barb Hurrelbrink open a parlor shop that features hand-crafted goods. Located in Norval, the shop operates out of her home. Mrs. Hurrelbrink began her business two years ago, going from home to home like Tupperware parties operate, displaying her wares under the name "Playtime Pals". Although now she has eight women doing crafts for her, she also manages to do some herself. In January, she'll be teaching craft classes and for more information, call her at 877-5834. Nanny's Knee-dle is open Thursday through Saturday from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday from noon to 6 p.m.

'Leather painting' aids U.S. charity

Area artist Rick Berghammer is sending one of his intricate "leather paintings" to California to bolster a fund-raising drive there for muscular sclerosis (MS).

The work, a 24-inch by 30-inch picture of a horse copied from a photograph, will be given to a 14-year old Gilroy, California, girl whose horse was killed in a tragic accident recently.

Witnesses to the incident launched a campaign to raise funds to replace the animal and the fund-raising efforts were successful that the additional donations earned $20,000 for MS.

Mr. Berghammer, who works at TDW Sales and Service on Georgetown's Armstrong Avenue, told The Herald that the picture of the girl's new horse, Perfect Glory, took about 240 hours to complete. Involved with MS fund-raising himself for a number of years, Mr. Berghammer has also donated work to the Halton Hills library-cultural centre.

The picture is expected to be presented at the end of the month during a special MS fund-raising event sponsored by KNTV of San Jose, California. (Gilroy is a Brampton-sized community located on San Jose's outskirts).

Mayor Pete Pomeroy, Mr. Berghammer said, will send a letter of "good wishes" to Gilroy residents, as well.

Work begins on erosion

Work begins on the erosion problem at the Glen Williams cemetery this week following recent approval of a $107,514 project by the Credit Valley Conservation Authority's executive committee.

Kenaldan Contracting Ltd. of Weston was scheduled to begin installing gabions Monday to protect the riverbanks adjacent to the cemetery. The firm will also fill and regrade an abandoned creek channel, using mudslide fill from four Glen locations, as part of its $67,489 contract.

In phase two of the overall project, Inverleigh Construction Ltd. of Milton will build a steel and timber stabilization wall at the top of the bank in the cemetery, protecting several grave sites. That job will cost $40,045.

Financing the overall project are the province (55 per cent) and Halton Hills (45 per cent).

Ho! Ho! Ho! Merry Christmas

Calendars on health are free

In the hope that Ontario residents will enjoy a healthy new year, the Ontario ministry of health has developed a colorfully illustrated "Health Begins at Home" calendar filled with facts about food, family activity suggestions, seasonal recreation tips and healthful recipes.

A useful feature of the calendar is a space on each day to write in your own special reminders. Also included are tables, conversion charts and information sources.

This free calendar is now available at the Halton Hills public libraries.
