Repeated forechecking and steady goaltending helped the Georgetown Tier 2 Bantams defeat the Burlington Minors, 5-2 on Nov. 8 in Burlington.

Although Burlington scored first, and only fourteen seconds into the game, Scott Campbell tied it up, with help from Mike Hurley and John Rogers, in the last minute of the first period.

Despite penalties in the second period, the Georgetown team skated hard and outmuscled the strong opposition.

Mike Hurley scored the second goal, assisted by Neal White and Mike Hunter. Then Burlington tied the game, 2-2. But Georgetown continued to pass and score, with Jim Manning finding the mark, thanks to Mike Tyler and Jeff McNiven.

In the third period, Mike Hurley's hard work resulted in a hattrick for him. He scored twice, assisted by Scott Campbell and Neal White on both goals, making it a 5-2 score.

This exciting game was the Georgetown's squads third win in as many games.
