

Sabres take revenge in third hills' battle

By DENIS LAWRENCE
Herald Correspondent

For the second time in two weeks the Acton Junior B Sabres took on the Georgetown Gemini and unlike the last meeting they won 5-3 to take a two games to one lead in the unofficial "battle of the hills".

The game on Friday night was a very fast paced game except at the end when Acton started to take control.

In the first period the play started out fast but the Gemini soon began to dominate when the play became wide open.

Georgetown opened the scoring as Chris Peavoy put one in on a pass from Herb Kewley. The Acton squad came back a short time later on a power play by Len Pelizzari on a pass from Ken Franklin and Bob Bold.

The period ended with no more scoring as the goaltenders kept the game close.

The second period started out fast. There were three goals scored in the first six minutes, two by the Gemini and one by the Sabres.

Jay Barwell scored unassisted and Kevin

Franks scored on a pass from Mark Hamilton and Lance Doucette. For Acton while Roy Spear scored from Gord McArthur between the two Gemini goals.

Acton started to take control, scoring three more unanswered goals before the period ended, the first coming off the stick of Mike Yelowica his first of the year from Art Keating. The second goal was on the power play from Roy Spear and Mark Symes. The third goal was a short handed effort by Mike Monahan unassisted to round off the period giving Acton a 5-3 lead.

The Acton Sabres started out the third period by scoring three quick goals, the first coming off the stick of Rick Dodds from Art Keating and Mark Symes, the second was by Mark Symes, his first of the year from Art Keating and Mike Yelowica.

Acton's third goal of the period was scored by Len Pelizzari with help from Paul Cargill.

Georgetown started to come back a little later scoring two quick goals, the first by Lance Doucette unassisted and the second came off the stick of Dave Lovridge on a pass from Bob Davey and Mark Hamilton.

That was it for the Gemini as Acton scored one

Gemini defenceman Jay Barwell is alone on this play in the goalcrease with Acton Junior B Sabre netminder Chris Martin in game action between the two rival clubs Friday night in Acton. The Sabresmen outdistanced the Georgetown club 5-3 in a close matchup. Acton coach Bill Richmond credited the win to his club's team play. (Herald photo by Dennis Lawrence) more by Mike Monahan from Denis Kirtin and Roy Spear to end the scoring.

Sabres coach Bill Richmond said the team was working hard and as a unit and not individuals and it showed in the final score.

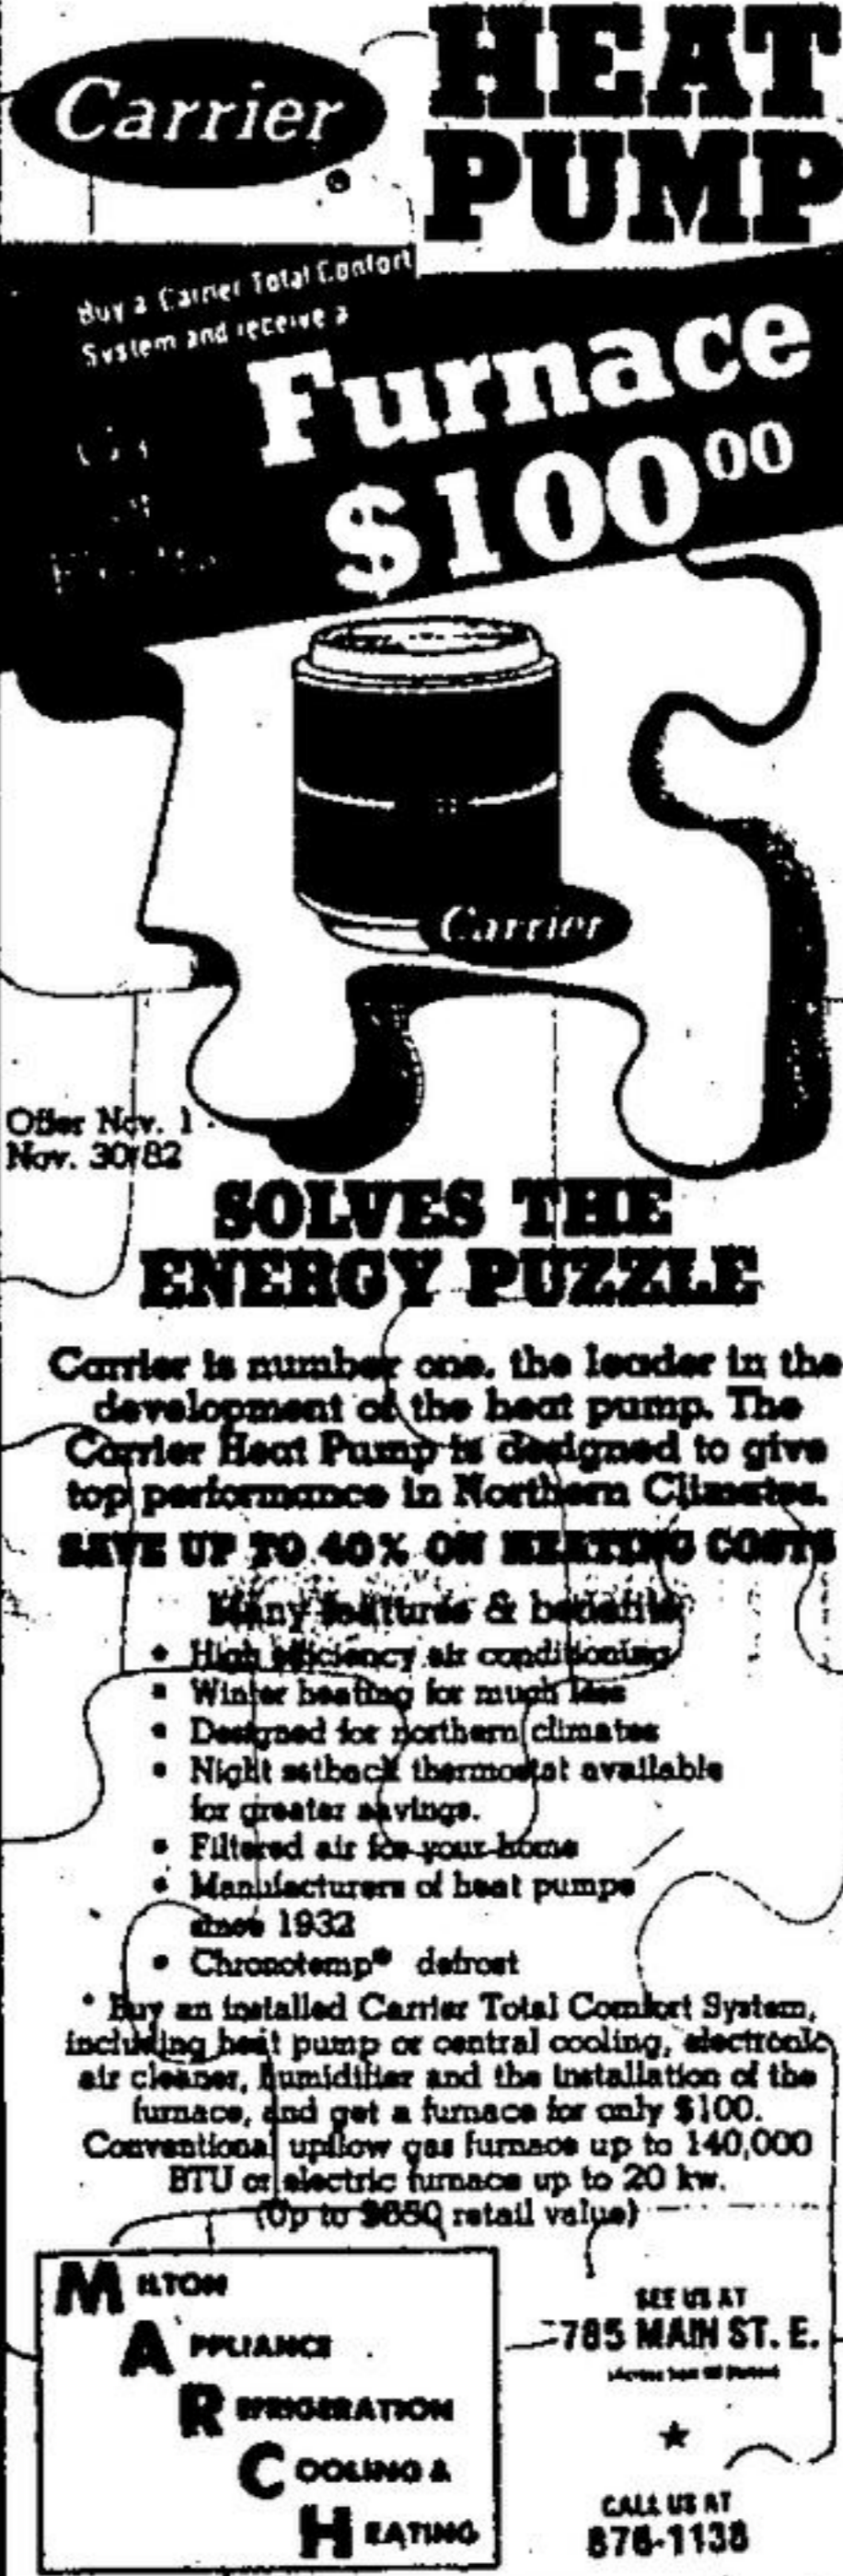

The three stars for Georgetown were Chris

Peavoy, Jay Barwell and Lance Doucette. For Acton they were Roy Spear (who played his best game of the year) Mike Monahan, and Ken Franklin.

The next home game for the Sabres is Saturday night against the league leading Streetsville Derbys at 8:30 p.m.
