Safety blank opponents

The Georgetown rep Fire Safety Novice hockey club outdistanced Streetsville 2-0 Sunday in a home game.

Collecting the shutout for Georgetown was David Frost. Scoring for the locals came in the opening and closing minutes of the second period. Ryan Pells scored the first goal from Ryan Ward.

Then Stephen Leoni made it 2-0 from a Jeff Pasma pass. Coach Brian James said the team played outstanding hockey and the defence was impressive.

The forward lines skated well for all three periods, he said.

The team's next home game is Saturday in Georgetown at 3 p.m. at Alcott arena vs Flamboro.

Optimists tie 2-2

The Georgetown rep Minor Bantam Optimists tied Oakville 2-2 Thursday.

The locals were held to their scoring blitz in the first period. Picture perfect passes from Terry Dixon and Rob Cooper set up Stephen Fletcher's goal at the halfway point in the first period.

With two minutes left Fletcher scored again from Cooper and Craig Chantler. Not usually subject to injuries, Georgetown suffered three in the game.

Goalie Joe Balson held Oakville to two goals in the second and third periods as Georgetown's net felt the injuries.
