Atoms lose a tough one

November 19 and 20 saw Georgetown Minor Atom Reps in Buffalo playing against still triple A competition.

Friday's opener was against Toronto Young Nationals undefeated in two years.

Jason Smith surprised the Nats with a quick game opener after just 52 seconds. Seven minutes later the Young Nats evened the score and then went on to defeat Georgetown 6-1.

Saturday morning Georgetown played Amherst, New York and again opened the scoring.

Adam Hills accounted for the only major in the first period but Amherst evened the count in the second. Amherst scored twice in the third before Sean Guistini brought Georgetown to within one goal with the help of Brian Brooker. Final score 3-2.

Saturday afternoon Georgetown encountered Oakville and were held scoreless. The final outcome 1-0 Oakville.

Although Georgetown failed to win a game the experience of playing these triple A teams built the teams confidence and proved the superb ability of goalies Terry Metler and Duane Lane.

Tuesday, November 23 Orangeville visited Georgetown resuming the regular series. Steve Brown assisted by Jason Smith and Adam Hagen opened the scoring but Orangeville evened the count before the end of the first period.

The visitors scored again but Jason Smith assisted by Steve Brown tied the game again at only 2:38 of the middle frame. Orangeville then counted three majors before Steve Brown assisted by John Cruise scored at 12:15 of the third period.

With only 11 seconds remaining Georgetown continued to apply the pressure and Sean Guistini, assisted by Adam Hills and Jason Smith, brought the score to within one. Unfortunately time ran out with Orangeville winning 5-4.

Last Saturday, November 27 Georgetown travelled to Milton and enjoyed the home team in a see-saw battle. Milton opened the scoring at 9:20 of the first period. Jason Smith evened the count at 9:27 of the second period with assists going to Steve Brown and Adam Hagen.

Milton jumped ahead in the third period but Jason scored again at 7:26 with the help of Duane Lewis. Milton again went ahead but seconds later Adam Hills split the defense and tied the game again.

Milton responded with another goal but Adam again unassisted evened the count at 11:46. At 13:17 Adam added his third of the game with assists going to Duane Lewis and Adam Hagen. Final score Georgetown 5 Milton 4.

Sunday, November 28 Georgetown continued their winning way with Adam Hills getting his second hat trick in two games. Brampton opened the scoring after only 35 seconds but Adam tied the game at 9:59 assisted by Duane Lewis.
