

POLICE BEAT

Two charged

Two Georgetown 19-year old men were charged recently with possession of a narcotic. One was arrested in the Georgetown Marketplace parking lot at 10:20 p.m. Nov. 25, and the second on Guelph Street Dec. 1 following a vehicle check at 11:15 a.m. The two will be appearing in Milton provincial court Jan. 10.

Stereo stolen

An RR1 Georgetown home was robbed of $1,000 worth of stereo equipment during daylight hours last Wednesday. Halton regional police are investigating the theft.

Shop broken into

Overnight Saturday Skippers Fish and Chips on Guelph Street was again vandalized. A rock was thrown through the restaurant's front door window causing $100 damage about 6:40 p.m. Nothing was taken from inside the premises, Halton police reported.

Shotgun taken

A basement door was forced Dec. 2 and a 12 gauge shotgun worth $400 was removed from an RR1 Acton home. The daylight break caused $50 damage to the basement door.

Basement entry

Jewellery worth $2,000 was taken from a Terry Court home in Georgetown Dec. 1 between 6:30 and 9:30 p.m. Halton police say entry was gained by breaking a basement window.

Jeep stolen

A 1974 GMC Jeep removed from a home on the Fifth Line and Sideroad 5 overnight Saturday was recovered the next night on McIntyre Crescent. However, a 1976 GMC van removed from a Maria Street residence in Acton, also overnight Saturday has still not been recovered.

Vandalized, robbed

Hornby Box and Palette Ltd. had $250 damage to a vending machine and an unknown amount of money taken from the machine overnight Thursday. The Acton business was broken into by thieves who ripped tin siding at the rear of the Main Street building.

SANTA'S MAILBAG

Hi Santa:

My name is Stevie News and I am 6 years old and I have been a good boy all year. I would like to have a little T.V. for my own bedroom, a tape-recorder and Bert to match my old Ernie.

Santa! Don't go down the chimney cause you will burn up in the oil furnace.

I want E.T. too.

Love Stevie News,

RR1, Terra Cotta

Dear Stevie,

Whew! Thanks for the warning about the oil furnace! That was close! Well, I guess we'll have to keep old Ernie from being lonely another year, so perhaps Bert will pay him a visit this Christmas. I'll hunt around for the other things, too, Stevie. Thanks for writing.

Love, Santa

Dear Santa Claus,
I'm 2 1/2 yrs. old, thank you for last year's gifts.

This Xmas I'd like to have a PIANO, a doll, new clothes, a TOP, and some DISHES. I've been a good girl most of the time and I am looking forward to Xmas Day.

See you soon and have a good trip.

Love from
Emily Thompson,
Georgetown.

Dear Emily,

Santa's journey on Christmas Eve is always a good trip, my dear. Of that you can be assured. It's always wonderful because when it's finished, I know all the good children of the world will be happy. And I know one little girl in Georgetown named Emily who'll be merrily playing a piano for her new doll!

Thankyou for writing,
Santa Claus
