pearls and a sheer train. A cameo hat and matching veil completed the bridal outfit. The bride carried a cascade of pink roses and lily of the valley.

In matching victorian styled pink eyelet gowns, the attendants were maid of honor Rebecca Hase and bridesmaids Anne Sansall, Colleen Mulder and Allison Mulder.

They carried nosegays of pink, burgundy and white carnations, roses and tigerlily with matching floral arrangements in their hair. Kristy and Jody Johnson were flowergirls in dresses of pink satin with white eyelet overlay and pink satin sashes. They carried white wicker baskets of pink and white carnations, roses and tigerlily, and in their hair they wore wreaths of flowers.

Best man was Wes Palmer, Ushers were Stephen Bailie, George Sansall and Jeff Graham.

The mother of the bride wore a street-length gown of dusty rose and a corsage age of burgundy and dusty rose tigerlily.

A reception was held in the lower auditorium of the church. Best man Wes Palmer acted as master of ceremonies for the afternoon. Craig Copeland proposed the tribute to the bride and groom.

Prior to the wedding the bride was guest of honor at three miscellaneous showers and one personal shower. The couple honeymooned at Sabo Beach after a brief stay at the Mohawk Inn and are now living in Limehouse.

WI hears talk on home security

The Limehouse Women's Institute enjoyed a delicious potluck dinner in their Hall Thursday evening, entertaining several visitors and family members.

One visitor was their guest speaker, as well, Constable Scott Pringle, who showed about 20 minutes of movies concerning home protection - locks, doors, windows, etc. He willingly answered questions from the audience at the end and invited anyone interested to come to the office for help in further protecting their property.

Constable Pringle was thanked by Mrs. Booth, program convener, and given a small gift.

We hope that Jack Lawson continues to improve in hospital in Georgetown after suffering a stroke.

We extend sympathy to the family and friends of Ted Leslie who died in hospital in Georgetown Nov. 29. Ted was well-known here, having grown up and farmed Lot 17 on the Fourth Line, until a few years ago.

High scores at the last Women's Institute euchre of the season were held by Ila Switzer and James Cunningham.

Lone hands prizes went to Muriel Miller and Doug McMillan. Watch for notice of the new series beginning at Limehouse Memorial Hall after Jan. 1.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Roughley and wee daughters Amy and Katie have returned to Winnipeg after visiting his relatives here and attending her parents' Rev. and Mrs. Mackenzie, of Perth, 40th wedding anniversary in Knox Church, Acton Dec. 4.

Communion services were observed at Limehouse Presbyterian Church Dec. 12. The Sunday school and congregation enjoyed a potluck luncheon afterwards at noon hour when the children received little Christmas gifts.

White gift Sunday success

By WINIFRED SMITH

It was a special Sunday for the children Dec. 12 when they walked to the altar in the front of the church and presented their white gifts during the family Sunday service.

Many of the young folk took part in the service. They listened attentively to the Christmas stories told to them by Dr. Bandy and Anne Marie Goetz.

Most of the congregation stayed for lunch served in the basement of the church. In the afternoon the Sunday school children entertained with a program of readings and plays. The grown-ups helped with the singing of Christmas carols.

Then, to the tune of "Hear Comes Santa Claus", the jolly old fellow had gifts for all the children and a few of the deserving adults.

Sunday school superintendent Pat Kerr was unable to be present so Mrs. Gary Brown took her place as choir lady. At the close of the program Rev. Bandy thanked the teachers and all those who helped to make the event such a happy one for all. The beautiful Christmas tree with all the decorations added much to the joy of this annual occasion.

We were sorry to see Mr. and Mrs. Howard Briggs leave our neighborhood. They are now making their home in Georgetown. So we hope to see them from time to time.
