Peewee Sports Camp

By JOHN FELCE
 Herald Special
 The North Halton Sports Camp Minor Pee Wees continued their winning ways by rolling up two more victories.

On December 7, Streetsville was blanked 9-0 at Memorial Arena. Georgetown easily dominated the game scoring four times in the first period, three times in the second, and twice in the third period.

Three players earned three points: Andrew Hoddinott (2 and 1) Cameron Herman (1 and 2) and Doug Kent (1 and 2). Scoring once and assisting once were Alan Giray and Brent Presswood. Completing the scoring with singles were Travis Gardner, Doug McDermott, and Stuart Vogt.

Chris Stoddart assisted on two scoring plays and Mike Wilkins on one.

Curtis Green was in goal to earn his second shutout over Streetsville. At Maple Grove Arena in Oakville, on December 12, Georgetown used the powerplay quite effectively in a 4-1 win.

They went three for three scoring once in each period. Powerplay goal getters were Mike Wilkins, Adam Bennett, and Chris Stoddart. Stuart Vogt accounted for the other Georgetown goal. Alan Giray assisted on three markers while Adam Bennett and Steven Southerland set one up each.

Goalie Sean Cotton came up with many good saves to limit Oakville to one goal.
