Bantams drop Burlington

By DEE BUTWELL
Herald Special

The Dockeray Plumbing Bantam Tier 2 hockey team was successful in beating the Burlington Minors 2-1 Sat. Dec. 11.

It was a very exciting game, with fast end to end hockey. In the opening frame Burlington scored first on a rebound.

The second frame got off to a good start when Mike Ross alone took no pity on the goalie and deked him out to tie the game 1-1.

The hard hitting Dockeray Plumbing players continued to work as a team to skate hard, and to forecheck in the third period. Jim Manning scored after picking a top corner, although he says it was "just luck". Mike Hurley assisted on this winning goal.

As of December 11, the Dockeray Plumbing team has won second place in the Tier 2 Bantam league.
