

Treasurer on the job

Joe Rinaldo, Halton's new treasurer, began work at the region last week, introducing himself to councillors at various committee meetings. Married with two children, Mr. Rinaldo brings to the region 17 years of experience in municipal government, most recently in the finance department of Hamilton-Wentworth region. He replaces Gerry Lawson, who stepped down as regional treasurer in August to accept the commissioner of finance post in Hamilton-Wentworth. Despite his short stay with the region, Mr. Lawson is largely credited with pulling Halton out of a devastating budget crisis left over from 1990 and initiated the upgrading of the finance department following recommendations of a consultant's study last year.

HISTORY
The auditorium being completed, it became very popular for rentals, and bingos as well were held each Saturday night by the Branch, as well as the W.A., holding two a month, and the Imperial Section and Oddfellows holding one per month. The W.A., who had worked hard toward the completion of the rooms, also became much in demand as caterers for dinners, as well as always being willing to "help out" when asked by the Branch.

Mrs. T.F. Grieve, in view of her long service in Poppy Fund work and as sick convener, was made a life member that January. The annual election was held March 27, Dave Bowman again returned as president with Cliff Hills and Jim Bell vice presidents and an executive of H. Shepherd, J. Murphy, A. Taylor, and H. Garvin.

A short time after this, the first troop of Boy Scouts were presented with a flag and the boys were entertained at a social evening and the presentation made by the president. A big July 1 celebration was held that year. Tom Allen, who for so many years was an active member, became a life member. The Dart Room also became the focal point of entertainment, and since that time the three boards have been kept busy.

That spring, L.E. Fleck and Ross Duncan were re-elected honorary presidents and David Bowman returned for his third year as chief executive of Branch 120.

Other officers were 1st vice Henry Shepherd, J. Bell 2nd vice, and an executive of H. Garvin, J. Murphy, C. Day, and Fred McCartney.

Also an innovation in Branch affairs was introduced when at the request of the LCBO, our year was changed to run from January, with the annual election being held the last Sunday of that month.

To Be Continued.
