Candy Co. Peewees beat Milton solidly 3-1

By GARY LANE
Herald Special

The Candy Company Peewees ended a very good holiday season on Sunday with a solid 3-1 win over previously unbeaten Milton right on Milton ice.

The Candy Makers found themselves behind 1-0 going into the second period of play when Chris Bewley and Jimmy Lowry set up a goal from the stick of Wayne Snow.

After scoring the tying goal Snow came back in the third frame to score the game winner unassisted. Glenn Mulder added an insurance goal again unassisted to seal the victory for the Georgetown Tier II's.

The entire coaching staff of Pat Coulson and his assistant Gary Knight along with manager Don Smith were very pleased with the total team effort put forth by the boys.
