Minor Peewees

By JOHN FELCE
Herald Special

It was good news - bad news for the fans of the North Halton Sports Camp Minor Pee Wees last week. They took a 4-2 decision over Orangeville but were doused 5-3 by a spunky squad from Ching.

In Orangeville, Jan. 3, Georgetown tallied twice while a man short to dampen their hosts' powerplay and earn the win.

Brent Presswood, from Stuart Vogt, put Georgetown on the scoreboard on an Orangeville defensive miscue. Adam Bennett and Mike Wilkins added singles, unassisted, before Orangeville netted a pair to make the game close.

Alan Gray added the insurance marker at 8:31 of the third with Brent Presswood and Travis Gardiner assisting.

The next night, at home in Memorial Arena, the locals were hard pressed to put anything passed a stingy Ching netminder.

When the third period began Georgetown and Ching had already exchanged a pair of goals. Doug Kent and Steven Sutherland were the marksmen for the Sports Campers.

Ching popped in a pair before Steven Sutherland tallied again to make the game 4-3 with 2:13 remaining.

The final goal of the contest was into an empty net at :49 giving the black red and white its third loss in 25 games this season.

Assisting on Georgetown's scoring plays were Mike Wilkins, Stuart Vogt, Andrew Hoddinott and Brent Presswood.

Minor Bantams

The new year started off with a fizzle not a bang for the Minor Bantam repe. On Jan. 2 the team couldn't get it together as they went down to defeat at the hands of Brampton 5-3.

Georgetown was behind 3-0 at the end of the first. Four minutes into the second period Paul Smith scored on a long shot and 35 seconds later Rory Kennedy put one in on assists from Craig Chantler and Rob Cooper putting the team back into the game.

Dennis Doucette's unassisted goal proved to be too little too late as Brampton netted twice more.

Game number two of the new year Jan. 6 was much more impressive. Good positional play, more accurate passing and great backchecking was the order of the night as the Optimists downed Streetsville 4-1.

Tim Bennett scored unassisted only 18 seconds into the game. Near the end of the first Bill Herman was credited with a goal that, unfortunately, was tipped in by a Streetsville player.

That was all till near the end of the second when Paul Smith scored from Jeff Amato and Craig Chantler. The only goal in the third came from Jeff Amato with assists going to Paul Smith and Tim Bennett.

With only six regular season games left, this is the kind of hockey that can take the team a long way through the playoffs.
