

WI aids Ballinafad fire victims

By WINIFRED SMITH

The January meeting of the W.I. started off 1983 with a good attendance, all members bar one being present. It was held at the home of Margaret Jamieson Jan. 5.

At 1:30 p.m. a delicious dessert luncheon was served, which had been prepared by Helga Schwarz and Reggie Slesoraitis. Shortly after 2 p.m.

Financial statements and the minutes from previous meetings were given. Main business at hand was discussed, and decisions made. Those members responsible for packing and looking after delivering the Christmas boxes for the sick and shut-ins gave reports.

The president brought up the fact that there had been two disastrous fires in the neighborhood recently. As it had in the past been the custom for the W.I. to assist those in the community who had lost most of their belongings through fire, it was discussed among those present, and a motion was carried that each family be given a donation from the branch.

Grace McEnery, as Convenor of Education and Cultural Affairs took over for a period to conduct the program. Frances Buckrell was asked to give some known facts about the province of Manitoba.

There were a few reports given by standing convenors. Betty Koperdraad was asked to give current events, which was followed by the motto which had been prepared and given by Winnie Smith. The program ended with a most interesting talk by Grace McEnery on education.

There was a fairly good attendance at the annual meeting for the community centre Sunday afternoon. The meeting was called for 12:30 p.m. Lunch was served, after which there was a friendly get-together as people got to know each other. The business part of the meeting got under way around 2 p.m.

The newly elected slate of officers are as follows: Chairman - Hank Burnett; Secretary - Betty Andrew; Treasurer - Grant Casely; Entertainment - Jerry Bergan; Public Relations - Betty Walker; Maintenance - Jim Bailey; Members at Large - Chris Dewdney, Martha Lewis and Reg French.

At the close of the meeting tickets were drawn for a prize, which was a season's ticket to all Hall board dances. It was won by a Mr. Campbell of Ballinafad.

Good travelling and fine weather brought many worshippers out to church Sunday. They heard an inspiring sermon from the minister Rev. Dr. Bandy. It was announced during the service that next Sunday (Jan. 18) would be the annual congregational meeting. Come to the church service, stay for lunch, and attend the meeting following at 2 p.m.
