

POLICE BEAT

Second bed fire

A 90-year old woman was detained in Georgetown Memorial Hospital Tuesday after suffering minor smoke inhalation. It was the second mattress fire in a week for the woman who lives on Delrex Boulevard near Rexway Drive. Halton regional police said another $1,000 smoke damage was done to her home Tuesday evening, atop the $1,000 damage of the first January 14 fire.

Purse robbed

A woman out to visit friends was robbed of $600 Tuesday morning. The woman parked on Acton's Mill Street about 9:30 a.m. and left her purse in the front seat of her unlocked vehicle for about 15 minutes. When she returned, the money was gone, and she found her car keys abandoned a short distance away. Halton police are investigating.

Machines damaged

Vending machines were damaged to the tune of $850 between midnight and 7 a.m. Tuesday, at the Acton Free Press offices on Acton's Willow Street North. Halton regional police said thieves entered the premises after forcing a side door. Using equipment they found inside, thieves tried to force the coin boxes on a coke and a food vending machine, but were unsuccessful.

Snowmobile stolen

A 1980 Yamaha black snowmobile was stolen from the front yard of a Georgetown man at Lot 6, Concession 7, sometime between 6 p.m. Jan. 17 and 3:30 p.m. the next day. Halton regional police are investigating the theft.

Leos plan charity bowl-athon

By KIM LACEY
Herald Special

The first activity of the newly organized Georgetown Leo Club will be a bowl-athon to raise money for Meals-on-Wheels. Members of the Leos are already looking for community residents wishing to pledge money to their first project. The bowl-athon will be held Feb. 6 at 1 p.m.

The Leo Club, created for the younger members of our community (ages 13-19), has many ideas for future activities to raise money for charities or to help out members of our community.

Already some Leos have demonstrated their willingness by helping the Good Neighbor Service package and deliver Christmas hampers to the needy residents of Georgetown.

Members of the Leos have also volunteered no-charge babysitting for

LIONS CLUB

of Georgetown

residents who have to go to the hospital for a few hours a day. Names of these people are obtained from the Georgetown health unit. In the near future, the Leos will be holding a bake sale. The baked goods will be made by

Skiing at Chudleigh's

To the list of dozens of good places to ski around Halton Hills, Chudleigh's Apple Farm on Highway 25 south of Acton must now be added. A fee of $1 per person admits you to three different ski trails, each offering its own challenge for skiers of any expertise. Equipment is available for rent, the Apple 'n' Cider Shoppe offers a fireplace, chili, apple pie and cheddar cheese and you can sign up for lessons as well. Call Chudleigh's at 270-2982 for more information.

members of the club and the proceeds will go to charity.

The executive of the Leo Club, Brad Hansen-President, Kim Rudman-Secretary and David Marcell-Treasurer, are working enthusiastically to make this new youth club an asset to the community. In keeping with the motto of their sponsors, the Georgetown Lions Club, the Leos wish to serve our community.
