

The doors were open to welcome Squadron 756 Sunday morning as the air cadets joined the Knox Presbyterian Church congregation in Georgetown. Officer Tom Jerrard said they hope to make the church service parade an annual event. The last such walk took place three years ago. The air cadets regularly meet Monday nights, but have weekend activities as well, from sports competitions to camping exercises. The Rev. Peter Barrow of Knox church is also pastor of the squadron.

STEP 'N SONG

Air Cadets squadron 756 started their parade at 10:30 a.m. Sunday, marching from Georgetown's Cedarvale park downtown to Knox Presbyterian Church on Main Street. There were 65 out of 75 squadron members present for the chilly walk across town.

HIS ROAD TO A BETTER LIFE CAN START AT YOUR DOOR.

Many young people who have been in trouble with the law need help finding the road to a better life.

If they are to stay out of trouble for good, they need the stability and concern of a caring home.

A home like yours. We offer guidance, support and financial assistance to people who help, but it's your gift of kindness and sharing that really matters.

ABOUT THE HILLS

Robbery

An armed robber at the Pronto Self Serve gas station on Georgetown's Guelph Street got away with a small amount of cash Saturday night at 8:35 p.m.

The lone male produced a small handgun and demanded money from the attendant on duty, Halton regional police said.

Police described the suspect as a white man about 5 feet 10 inches tall, weighing 120 to 130 pounds, slim build, between 18 and 20 years old.

The man had light brown hair, slight moustache and was wearing a grey hooded sweat sweater with a zippered front and kangaroo pocket.

Summer employment

The search for summer jobs for students will be helped by the opening of a placement centre in Halton Hills.

Student employment co-ordinator Deborah Finegan of the department of Employment and Immigration was at Acton High School and Georgetown District High School earlier in the week to register students for jobs.

Ms. Finegan announced that 232 Guelph St. in Georgetown will be the new location for the student placement centre serving Georgetown and Acton students.

Racquet club

The Georgetown Racquet club is holding an open house April 30 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Come look over the facilities and discuss memberships that are available. Air Canada is also sponsoring their club championships.

Guatemalan lawyer

Everyone is invited to a special event with Guatemalan human rights lawyer Frank Larue recently returned from the U.N. Human Rights Commission in Geneva, and is touring 10 Ontario communities to speak for "10 Days for World Development" groups. Free admission, refreshments afterwards.

Major injuries

A Georgetown man was discharged from Georgetown Memorial Hospital Thursday morning after being treated for major injuries suffered in a car accident Sunday at 4:15 p.m.

Robert James Norton, 30, was treated for arm and abdominal injuries.

A second Georgetown driver, Lynd Ferguson, 45, was treated and released Sunday for minimal injuries.

The two drivers were involved in a motor vehicle accident at Mountainview River Drive. Both cars entered the intersection at the same time, one with a green traffic light and the other against a red light. There was $12,000 damage to the two cars.

Cruise missile rally

Several Georgetown and Acton residents will be at a major rally in Queen's Park this Saturday to protest cruise missile testing in Canada.

This peaceful demonstration is sponsored by 50 Toronto disarmament groups, and thousands are expected. For information call 877-1994.

Fire damages chimney

There was $375 damage to a metal lined chimney Friday just past midnight to a Lot 31, Concession 7 home. Nobody was hurt. Halton Hills deputy fire chief Bob Hyde attributed the chimney fire to excessive heat.

There was chimney fire Tuesday morning at 6:48 to a Nassagaweya home. There were no injuries and no damage.

A Park Avenue home in Acton had a furnace motor burnout April 13 at 10:40 p.m. There was no damage and no injuries in the incident, Mr. Hyde said.

P.D. day crafts

The Georgetown and Acton Libraries will be sponsoring a program entitled "Growing, Growing, Gone" Friday April 22 from 12 noon to 2 p.m.

There will be stories, crafts and films to pass the time on P.D. Day. This program is for school-age children, 5 year old and up. Bring a lunch but please register. For more information call 853-0301 (Acton) or 877-2681 (Georgetown).

Arthritis fallacies

Wednesday April 27 there will be a lecture on arthritis entitled Medical Aspects and Control - Facts and Fallacies.

Mr. Sidney Lineker of the Arthritis Society will talk about what's new in arthritis at the Georgetown Public Library in this free program starting at 7:30 p.m.

Researching roots

Elaine Bertrand will be speaking on genealogy research this Saturday at the Georgetown Public Library in a free program.

Mrs. Bertrand is the vice-chairperson of the Halton Peel Branch of the Ontario Genealogical Society. The program starts at 10 a.m. and lasts until 12 noon.
