Scouts planting 'for Canada'

By JEAN LAYMAN
Herald Special
North Halton District Boy Scout movement had several hundred scouts, cubs and beavers planting trees for the 11th annual "Trees For Canada", Sat. April 30.
Close to 10,000 white pine, maple, cedar, spruce and white spruce were planted at three different sites. The 1st Glen Williams cubs and scouts planted at the Meadowglen Mushroom property. The 1st Ballinafad group planted at Ballinafad, while Acton, Georgetown, Limehouse and Norval groups planted at the McDonald property on the 10th Line, east and north of Ballinafad. More than 80 per cent growth is expected, because the rains came before planting was finished.

Co-ordinator Sandy Keir, District Commissioner John Sharples, and District Council president Gord Douglas were on hand for this worthwhile event.

Refreshments and donuts were enjoyed by all at the end of planting.

Teens escape

Two teenagers got away Friday morning after Halton regional police responded to an alarm at George Kennedy Public School at 2:50 a.m.
The Weber Drive school had had a rear window broken, costing $100 in damage. The teens escaped out a side door while an officer was attempting to secure the school.

JOURNEY FOR SIGHT

With the help of the Lions, Lionesses and the Leos, Journey for Sight will be coming to Halton Hills May 14. The event is a 10 kilometre marathon that people can walk, jog or ride a bike like the one Lion John Clark is seen with. Beside him are Leos Cam MacIver and Brad Hansen.
