Girls' team wins again

By MARTHA LEWIS
Herald Special
The Limehouse-Ballinafad Guides held their annual mother and daughter banquet May 10 at the Church Hall. Special guests included Jean Roe, Commissioner, Barb Haddon, badge examiner, and Judy Shrubsole, who acts as bookkeeper for the group.

The Guide Leaders, Cathy Pouw, Hellen Schwarz, Marie Brown and Susan Brown, were each presented with an orchid by the mothers, in appreciation of all their work with the girls throughout the year.

Everyone was entertained with songs, and badges for the year's accomplishments were given out.

The All-round Cord presentation will be held on June 6 at St. George's Church in Georgetown. It is for those who have completed the full Guide Program prior to going on to Pathfinders.

At that time, Karen

Case, Susan White, Tammy West, and Heather Dawson will be honored.

Rev. Tom Bandy was welcomed back to the pulpit on Sunday, looking quite recovered from the flu. The ladies choir sang a lovely anthem, accompanied by Eileen McEnery. The sermon considered the active involvement of each of us in helping others.

Instead of saying we care, we should be showing we care by doing something helpful. The Guide movement mentioned above, is a healthy and productive result of everyone's participation. Certainly other community groups and activities would greatly benefit from a helping hand from each of us.

The ladies' softball team continues to be successful, after two more victories last week in Acton. The next game is at M.Z. Bennett Public School at 8:30 p.m. tonight (Wednesday).

Portrait Players

The Georgetown Alliance Church will be hosting the Portrait Players from the Canadian Bible College at the Bramalea Alliance Church Friday, May 20. For more information call 853-3323 or 877-9616.

Victoria Day festivities

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
Brampton West Institute held their May 10 meeting at the home of Mrs. Hyatt McClure. The meeting was under W.I. conveners of Agriculture and Canadian Industry.

The roll call was answered by naming and locating an industry vital to our economy.

Mrs. Wilson Fraser reported on the recent fashion show held to raise funds for the Peel Memorial Hospital expansion fund. Creative Cooking Experience - sponsored by Brampton West Institute for Peel Memorial Hospital fund, is to be held at Huttonville School on June 2, at 7:30 p.m. Tickets at $3 each may be obtained from branch members. Charlotte McClure read an article "What is a Farmer" and Catherine Monkman conducted a contest on local industry. The contest was won by Mary Eccles and Hilda Fraser.

Clifford Laidlaw, from the Apple Factory Farm at Mississauga Road and Highway 7 told of establishing a farm market in 1979 to market their own apples. It has expanded to include many farm products produced in Ontario. Slides illustrated the attractive marketing technique. The Apple Factory is a member of the Ontario Farm Fresh Marketing Association which promotes Ontario food for the consumer.

Marion McClure gave the courtesies, and lunch was served by Catherine Laidlaw, Mary Eccles, and Noreen French. The next meeting is to be June 14 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Betty McClure, with guest speaker Janet Johnson, who will tell of her two year teaching mission in Botswana, Africa.

Norval Euchre had five tables on Thursday last. Prize winners were - Isabel Landry, Elizabeth Wallace, Lois Wesselmann, Elsie Jarvie; Lone hands - Dunc McMillan, Lucky draw - Jean Cunningham.

Don't forget the Victoria Day celebrations in Norval - Sunday evening at 7:30 p.m. will be the ecumenical service in the Anglican church, with Rev. Ian McPherson, Rev. Ric Ruggie, and Rev. Walter Ridley taking the service.

Monday at 4 p.m. a parade will start at the four corners and proceed up the highway to the community centre. A bed race is scheduled for 5 p.m. with a full state of sports activities following. Then an amateur competition is planned. If you sing, dance, play an instrument or recite, phone 877-6350 or 877-1220 and get in on the prizes.

Halton and Peel Computer Club will be giving demonstrations. At Sundown a brilliant array of fireworks are planned. All this along with a booth to satisfy the tummy, right down to home made pie.

Come out and support this community effort. Get will wishes to Mrs. Lillian Bellbobby, Herald Ashgrove correspondent who had the misfortune to break her hip on Friday. Mrs. Bellbobby is in Georgetown District Hospital. Best wishes for a quick recovery.

Bike safety clinic

A bike safety clinic and skill competition is being held by the Optimists at 9 a.m. at the Georgetown Fairgrounds Saturday, at the small baseball field opposite Park Public School. Rules of the road will be taught and all ages are welcome.

Shrub sale

Those looking for terrific bargains in evergreens and shrubs might want to wander down to Glen Williams Saturday May 21 starting at 9 a.m. The sale, in which proceeds go to the Glen Williams Town Hall committee for community projects, will take place on the lawn of 15 Prince St. in the Glen.

Come early to pick out some top bargains in shrubbery.

WE ARE AGAINST KIDDIE PORN

Child pornography cannot be made without real, live children. That is its horror.

At present, in Canada, the laws governing Child Pornography are weak and outdated. We need Bill C-53 to prevent this sexual abuse of children.
