

Elk bants rally back

By KEITH MILLS
Herald correspondent

The Georgetown minor bantam Elks scored three times in the top of the seventh and final inning, then held on for a come-from-behind 6-5 win over the Burlington Minors in Halton County Baseball action last Wednesday night.

Georgetown hurler Chuck Peebles held the Burlington offence in check through the early going, recording 10 strike outs while his teammates struggled at the plate.

Mike Ross sparked the Georgetown offence by stroking a pair of singles, while Peebles and Dave Tate unloaded two-base hits.

Greg Tuck, Rob

Gramada and Scott Mizener all poked out singles for the locals. Tuck also turned in a fine effort with his glove, making two spectacular catches in left field.

Earlier, the Elks dropped a pair of decisions.

On the road, the locals were drubbed 14-1 by Clarkson, despite a three-hit performance by Ross, who belted out a triple and a pair of singles.

Peebles also lashed out a pair of safeties, while Tuck had a single.

The Elks dropped a 4-1 decision to Oakville in their last home start.

The loss dampened a strong pitching performance by Peebles, who retired eight of the first 10 batters he faced.

Track club picks emblem

The Georgetown Track Club finally have a logo they can call their own.

The newly-formed club announced last week they have adapted a design by Georgetown freelance artist Brian Coe as their emblem. The design is a simple one, a man running inside a circle.

Inside the circle are the words Georgetown Track Club.

"It had to be simple, yet striking at the same time," Coe explained.

"It's going on the front of their T-shirts, and it has to be a design that would make everybody want to buy one of those shirts."

Coe, who has designed logos for baseball teams in Brampton and Limehouse, created the track design after reading in The Herald that the club was looking for a new emblem.

He is also working on a design for Georgetown Raider "Booster" T-shirts.

Tennis gals take three

The Gordon Alcott Ladies 'A' tennis team took three of four matches from Toronto's Rose-thorn in Inter County play last Wednesday in Georgetown.

The team of Linda Rice and Isla Allison took their match in straight sets, 6-4, 6-3.

Key King and Ann Kennedy duplicated that effort, winning 6-2, 6-1.

Audrey Houston and Marilyn Serjeantson dropped their first set 6-7, but fought back to take the final two sets, 6-2, 6-0.

The combination of Pat Harris and Doreen Thomson fell 6-7, 3-6.

Coleman nets two goals in Raider win

Duane Coleman netted a pair of goals to lead the Senior Raiders to a 4-0 shutout victory over the Maniacs in Georgetown Youth Soccer Club peewee action last week.

Stephen Fletcher and John Devries each found the mark for the winners, who also got good play from John Hillier and Neil Beveridge.

Tim Osterhof, Ken Harbers and Harvey Jonkman played well for the Maniacs.

Alain Thibault and

Greg Kerr traded goals as the Panthers and the Iron Maidens deadlocked at 1-1 in other peewee action.

In the week's final game, Phil Hughes and Gord Anderson both bagged a pair of goals as the Maniacs slipped by the Commandos, 5-4.

Osterhof scored the fifth Maniac goal. David Harrison, with a pair, Stephen Delroy and Alan Shields replied for the losing side.

Selects shut out Clarkson

The Georgetown select atom girls team played a strong game and won against a capable and aggressive Clarkson-Sheridan side at Cedarvale on Friday.

Jody Cree scored two run-away goals, backed up by Cathy Paul, who was also outstanding in initiating breakaways.

Nicole Remedios was instrumental in suppressing many opposition thrusts into Georgetown territory and Cindy Brennan and Leanne Ingalls share honours as goalkeepers in the 2-0 shut-out.

The rest of the team, who can be commended for their efforts, are Melanie Booth, Laurie Doyle, Michelle Gaffey, Cara Gougan, Tracy Rehberg, Diana Savage and Lisa Vogt.

The referee for the game was Klaus Zander, president of the Georgetown Youth Soccer Club.
