Georgetown Flag Football report Delrex manage not to lose

By TIM TULTON
Herald Correspondent
Anyone who thinks Battle of the Network Stars is exciting should have caught either the Smoke Shop-Fobert game this week, or the Greeks-Corrigan Instrumentation clash, or even Lindsay's Longhorns versus M and M Pro Sports.

On the other hand neither Independent Appraisal Services or Dairy Queen gave their opponents the ball long enough to generate any excitement at all.
Delrex kept their undefeated record intact, but only by the hair of their proverbial chins, as quarterback Bob Inglis engineered a dramatic 70-yard scoring drive in the final three plays of the game on consecutive passes to Jack Butler.

Chris Sargent scored to bring them to within one point of Foberts at 19-18. Then showing devil-may-care spirit, Inglis eschewed the tie and went for the win, hitting Rodney Geegar for the two-point conversion and a 20-19 win.

There were numerous outstanding individual performances in this physical and sometimes chippy game, the most noticeable by Fred Enge, Mark Nullally and Terry Hunt for Foberts and Bob Sargent and Jack Butler for Delrex.

Jerry Nell and Rodney Geegar had the other Delrex majors while Hunt, Nullally and Ken Baker scored for Fobert. Hunt and Brian Tilson had interceptions for Foberts, Sargent and Doug Thompson for Delrex. Touchdowns by Bill and Paul Allison and a furious defensive stand gave Lindsay's Longhorns their first win of the year, 14-13 over M and M this week.

M and M have had a rough start to the '83 season, but still built up a 13-0 lead on TDs by Joe Wygergangs and Bob Morrow.

A Longhorn interception by Nelson Barber started the swing the other way. From that point on it was all Longhorns as they battled back to take a one point lead.

A rose is a rose is a rose but there is only one Baldwin when it comes to quarterbacking. With Rick Baldwin sidelined with a dislocated shoulder this week, brother Jim Baldwin took over and eventually guided the Greeks to a come-from-behind 22-18 win over Corrigan Instrumentation, but it wasn't quite as convincing as the Greeks are used to. In fact, it wasn't until the last minute of the game that the comeback was completed when Mark Russell scored on a six-yard pass and James Allen added a two-point conversion.

Paul Karolidis put the Greeks on top early but C.I. followed Kevin Harrison's interception with a 75-yard touchdown by Brad Ferguson who out-ran the Greek defenders. Harrison added the convert then later booted a 45-yard field goal to add to Corrigan's lead.

Paul Wilson's TD and Allen's two-pointer restored the Greek lead briefly but in the third quarter Harrison's 50-yard field goal attempt went wide for a single, then Ferguson ripped off another 80-yard run for a TD.

Corrigan played strongly and appeared to have the Greeks on the ropes but they got off the canvas long enough to engineer the last minute rally. Showing a complete lack of hospitality Dairy Queen posted their third consecutive lopsided win this week, pasting T and R Paving 40-0.

Howie Hulme led the proceedings with 16 points, while Mike Lord and Brian Davies each had a single major. Jeff Lockwood added a 47-yard field goal and Gary Lockwood added three singles.

Jim Taggart and Wayne Johnson each had a pair of TDs to lead IAS to a 40-1 humiliation of North Halton Sports. For once the IAS speed matched their repartee as they simply ran over and around North Halton. Wayne Richardson scored the other touchdown, while Gary Richardson contributed a field goal, point after and a two-point convert, Chris Reed and Mike Pierce also had two-point converts. Pierce, Taggart and Rob Pemberton had IAS interceptions.

Players of the Week: Jack Butler SS, Jim Taggart IAS, Paul Cunningham NHS, Mark Nullally Fob., Howie Hulme DQ, Roy Rahn T and R, Kevin Harrison, C.I., Rob Rivers G., Nelson Barber L.L., Bob Morrow M and M.

Peewee soccer

David Harrison bagged a pair of goals to lead the Commandos to a 4-3 decision over the Iron Maidens in Georgetown Youth Soccer Club peewee action last week.

Ross Leonard and Stephen Delroy also tallied for the winners. James Schenk and Greg Kerr replied for the losing side.

Duane Coleman fired a pair of goals to lead the Senior Raiders past the Panthers, 4-3. Stephen Fletcher and John Devries also counted for the Raiders.

Terry Smith, Jimmy Clark and Teddy Weatherall all found the mark in a losing effort.

Fletcher and Devries both scored twice to lead the Senior Raiders to a 6-5 win over the Iron Maidens in the week's final action. Derek Oram and Coleman also tallied for the Raiders.

Houston, Hurley top doubles list

By KELLY NORGATE
Herald Correspondent
It was a hot and grueling mixed doubles tournament for those players at the North Halton tennis club last weekend, where 15 teams fought for the Burgoyne Cup. Most teams had to break between sets and sometimes between games to get some relief from the heat. The tournament began

Saturday morning at 10 a.m. and stretched on until 6 p.m. Play proved difficult in the heat but all competitors made a good effort. Finals for the main and consolation rounds were played Sunday, still without a cloud, breeze or break from the high temperatures.

Winners of the cup were finally Mireille Taylor and Colin Muspratt, after a fairly even final match against Mike Hurley and Audrey Houston. The three sets lasted a total of 2 1/2 hours with scores of 6-3, 4-8 and 6-3 in games.

"It could have gone either way," said Taylor. "It was tough and go with lots of deuces." Mireille explained that their strategy included trying to avoid play at the net as much as possible.

Taylor said her partner made some "very nice shots" and they tried very hard to work as a team. Hurley suggested that both teams were about the same in calibre.

"No team really overpowered the other, we were pretty well equal," he said. Hurley also said that he and Houston performed some excellent volleys but missed a lot of important chances to make points. Hurley commended the winners for their strong, consistent serves.

"We died in the heat," he added.

The consolation round was played between Midge and Frank Hampshire against Betty and Ray Norgate. The Hampshires came out on top with a score of 6-0, 5-0.

Tyke Lions improving

The Georgetown tyke Lions showed some improvement as they downed Burlington, 18-14, in Halton County Baseball League action on the weekend.

Jason Morey supplied most of the offensive spark for the locals, crashing out a triple and a home run to collect five runs batted in.

Sunday morning the Lions came out on the short end of a 15-6 score against Streetsville. Three different pitchers gave up a total of 18 walks to opposition batters in the loss.

Thursday night in Oakville, the locals watched a 7-3, fourth-inning advantage disappear as they dropped an 8-7 count.
