Zellers show a big success

WOW! Where do all the people come from? Saturday at Zeller's I met many old friends along with many new ones.

The new casting reel, the Magforce, drew lots of attention, as did the new Autocast. The Magforce will cast a lure without line tangle, and that's something even for the newer casting reels that have hit the market over the last few years. Magforce comes in four different sizes ranging from eight, 10 and 12 pound test line to 14, 20 and 25 pound test line. Pick the one for your type of fishing and enjoy it for the rest of your life.

My "old" Diawa Millionaire casting reel has been through the fishing wars with me and is still as good as new. The Procaster has a finger pickup of the line and the ball together. This makes it a one-hand operation and no manual lifting of the ball, unless you want to. Also keep an eye on the Diawa Underspin series, as they are dynamite.

Stories of fish caught on Mepps were prevalent last weekend. It seems that everyone uses Mepps and catches fish with them. The newer fluorescent spinners are hot for the large trout of Georgian Bay, and Walleye hit them with a fury.

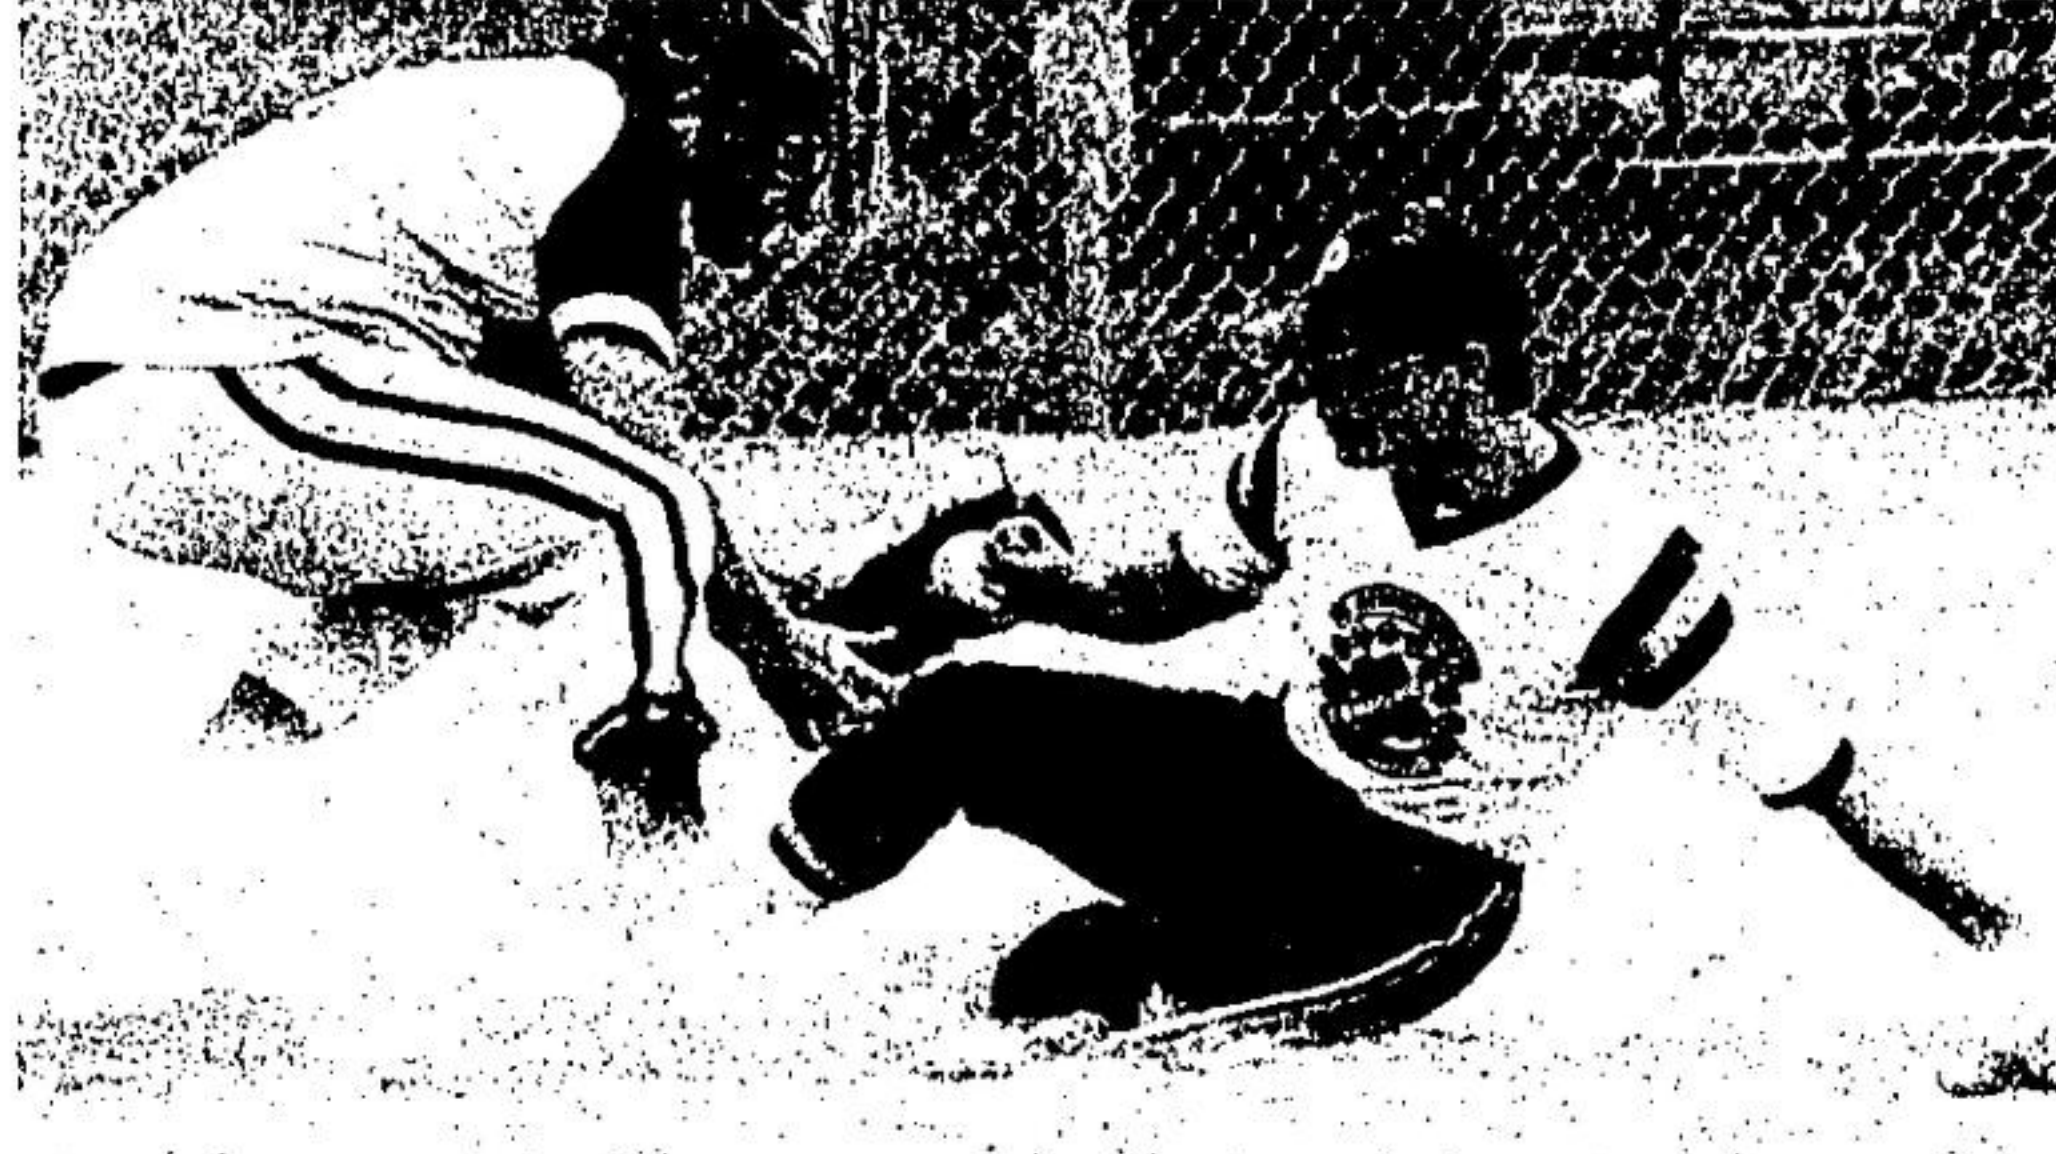

But the big news is the newer Nils Maste plugs. These hit the market last year, and the one I gave to Dale Wood of Glendale Charters took Muskie for him when nothing else would do. Another convert to Nils Master plugs. It's still a little hard to get anything new that is really good. Be diligent and keep an eye out for them.

The winners of the draw prizes are as follows: Fenwick 7-7 tackle box donated by Zellers was won by Ted Batchelor of RR1 Limehouse. The Diawa rod and reel set donated by Direct Factory Sales was placed in the lucky hands (and carefully too) of Doctor Len Landry of Georgetown. An added bonus prize donated by yours truly and Mepps was a kit of Mepps lures, won by 9-year-old Sherry Lynn Baker of McKenzie Drive in Georgetown. Congratulations to these winners, and others too.

The Bass fishing season opens this Saturday in the rest of Ontario and according to the survey taken at Zellers last weekend, lots of you readers love our famous Bass. Both Largemouth and Smallmouth are a favorite target fish and with this hot weather of late, I would try fishing deep for them, or at night. If fishing close to home try Mountsberg. This lake (actually a divided lake) has fine bass fishing.

Fish from shore with a seven inch Rapala in blue. Boat fishermen should use spinner baits or Johnson silver minnows in the weed beds. Tip the above noted lure with a plastic tail or a pork rind. Use Uncle Josh pork chunks or strips for hot action. Fairy Lake in Acton needs a shot of bass in the form of stocking and then some hard control of the duck and goose population in order to get it back to the great fishing lake it once was.

However or wherever you fish, good luck, and please let me know how you did. I will be fishing the famous Mirimichi river in New Brunswick for salmon at the time you read this.

This Kinsmen runner was actually safe on this play, during a five-run sixth-inning springing against Royal Pizza in the Slo-Pitch Charity Tournament championship game. The Pizza men held on for a 10-8 win, and the title, however. Proceeds from the tourney went to the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded. (Herald photo)

Pizza men built big lead then held on for 10-7 win

Royal Pizza built up an eight-run lead, then held on to defeat the Kinsmen 10-7 to win the Halton Hills Service Club Slo-

Pitch Charity Tournament at the Fairgrounds on the weekend. The final game concluded a gruelling weekend of baseball for the two finalists, who survived through five earlier matches to reach the championship.

The champs narrowly missed being eliminated in the semi-finals by the SOB's, as they rallied from a 19-10 deficit with the maximum 10 runs in the bottom of the seventh to slip by, 20-19.

Paul Berton and Elliot Halparin paced the Royal attack in this game, both men slugging round-trippers.

Nick Boere cracked a pair of home runs in a losing cause.

In the other semi-final, the Kinsmen needed an extra inning to dump Random Car Club, 13-10.

The score was tied 8-8 in the top of the seventh inning when Pete Worton and Dean Miller slugged back-to-back solo home runs to give the Kinsmen an apparent victory.

Wayne King and Dave Majurey matched that feat for Random in the home half of the inning to extend the game.

The champions defeated the Optimists 27-5, dumped the Firemen 21-14, and thrashed the Lions 16-6 to advance to the semi-finals.

The Kinsmen topped the Jaycoes 33-10, and defeated the Firemen 18-5 after dropping an 8-7 decision to Choice Air in their trip to the semi-finals.

Tournament director Gord Lane held the box for Aggie Kavanaugh to draw out the lucky ticket prior to the final game of the Slo-Pitch Charity Tournament at the Fairgrounds on the weekend. The tickets were sold at $1 apiece, with half of all the proceeds going to the North Halton Association for the Mentally Retarded. The other half, of course, went to the lucky ticket holder. ### Alcott tennis ladies take three of four

The Gordon Alcott Ladies 'A' tennis team took three of four matches from Brampton in an Inter County contest last Wednesday.

The combination of Marilyn Serjeantson and Audrey Houston overpowered their opposition, winning 6-0, 6-2.

Kay King and Ann Kennedy also teamed up for an impressive victory, with scores of 6-2, 6-3.

Linda Rice and Ina Allison went to three sets to dump their opponents, 3-6, 7-3, 6-1.

Doreen Thomson and Pat Harris lost a close one, dropping the final two sets 4-6, 5-7, after taking the opener 6-0.

Priddle homers to help top visitors

Jaimie Priddle belted out a pair of round-trippers, a triple, and collected four runs-batted-in to lead the Georgetown Lion tykes to a 22-17 Halton County Baseball League win over Streetsville Sunday at the Fairgrounds.

Jay Kerslake also had a big day at the plate for the fast-improving Lions, cracking a pair of doubles for two RBIs, while scoring five runs himself.

The defence gave a good account of itself, with the outfielders making several good throws. Adam Hagen and Ed Piqueras combined on the mound for the winners.

Friday night in Brampton, the locals dropped a 14-8 decision.

Sports top Valdi

Action has begun in Kinsmen Junior Girls Softball play, Thursday nights behind Park School.

In recent action, North Halton Sports defeated Valdi Discount Foods 25-17, and doubled Standard Products 33-18.

Valdi Discount Foods emerged victorious in a close match with Standard Products, winning 22-20.

Petrocans top Donut Timers 3-1

Jeff Coughlan scored once and assisted on another to lead unbeaten Dave's Petrocan to a 3-1 decision over Donut Tim in ball hockey action Thursday night at Memorial Arena.

Gary Maltby and Kevin Phillips also found the range for the winners, who have yet to lose in seven outings. The only blemish on their won-lost mark is a single tie.

Brian Kennedy replied for Donut Time, from

Pete Coffey. Martin Structure kept pace with Petrocan by whipping Dutch Export, 8-1.

Mike McNiven fired three goals and added an assist to spark the winning attack. Howie Oram scored twice and assisted on two others, while Tony Oram, Dave Doucette and Riv Kennedy all fired single markers.

Eric Namnik counted for Dutch Export. Rick Knight and Paul

Davidson scored for the Stone Crushers, as they upset the French Connections 2-0.

In the week's final action, Bob Veitch and A.E. LePage tied it up at 2-2. Barry Stevens and John Sellar took turns setting up each other for the Veitch goals, with line-mate Mark Kurley helping out on both goals.

Bob Fendley and John Clarke counted for A.E. LePage.
