Scots win

Here we go, another week into the season - and what a week. The highlight for me was the visit by the Scottish National Team with a third victory in three games. Andy Gray netted two splendid first half goals to set the seal on a 2-0 result. Wonder boy Charlie Nicolas took an early knock and showed enough to confirm his rating as a class player.

I thoroughly enjoyed Twin Central defenders Alex McEish and Willie Miner. They won every ball and Scottish keeper Jim Leighton only had one save to make. Canada's young goalie Chris Turner had a good match. B. Wilson made his presence felt. Ed McNally posed a few problems and Dale Mitchen tried hard. For me, Gerry Gray, the little midfielder, was top Canadian.

The Canadians can only learn by playing top opposition. Plans are afoot for England, Italy or Portugal for next year.

My column "stinks" according to a "fan". I do not print enough of the Falcons. I told him if he wanted more to write it himself. As it is Falcon coach Sam Inglis said a 0-6 loss at Della was like playing in another world last week. The lads were outclassed in this one. I wish I had seen it so that I could say more.

Earlier in the week the Legion sponsored Falcons dropped a 0-1 result to Oakville. The goal came from an Oakville free kick and a short pass back which was stolen by a visiting forward and rolled home. Gary Lockwood played a good second half from defense. Rob Fokkens almost scored with a tremendous drive which skimmed the crossbar.

The Inter County League welcomed Molson's as the league sponsor at a recent league meeting. Molson's are sponsoring league and cup, as well as a trophy of the month, for both first and second division.

Varian are the surprise package of the season. Unbeaten in 4 games they lead the second division by 1 point from Guelph. Butcher, newly promoted to the first division, are in first place after five games by two points over Meteor Blue. So far the league are not experiencing the discipline problems of last season.

The junior Falcon reps had a fine 3-1 win over Miss. SC, under the lights on Tuesday. A penalty for handball gave Miss. the lead and a fine save by Scott Murray kept the score at 0-1. Both goalkeepers had to go off with injuries, an unusual feature of this match. Goals from Glen Faulkner, Sean O'Neil and Jerome Stone won the game.

The ladies Blue team filed a 5-0 victory over newcomers Caledon. Penny Bydevante netted the hat trick with a fine individual display. The influx of former youth club players is showing up in the skills and ability of the ladies teams. The standard of play has increased and they still have a lot of fun and applaud good efforts by opponents.

Final comments on the Scotland - Canada game. Our bus driver said "I didn't know Scots could drink as much and remain sober". Bryan Turner said he "would not have missed the bus trip for anything".

Runners nip Destroyers

Judy Cree and Kathryn Tannock scored second-half goals to lead the Roadrunners past the Destroyers, 2-1, in Georgetown Youth Soccer Club atom girls action last week.

Marianne Longo repli-ed for the Destroyers, who were shut out until the final seconds of the match. In other action, Nicole Remedios fired a pair of goals to lead the Golden Gals to a 3-0 victory over the Pickles.

Tracey Rehberg also counted for the winners. Corrie Tutt and Shannon Albert played well for the winning side, while Kim Collison, Jeany Chantler and Julie Dwyer performed well for the Pickles.
