Sports camp fun

Attention: all young Halton Hills sports fans! There's only one week left of the recreation department's Sports Camp '83. Come on out and enjoy a fun filled week of games, sports and swimming designed to keep even the most energetic child busy. Avoid disappointment, register now. To enjoy those long, hot summer days in August, the Recreation Department in conjunction with the Halton board of education is offering the 4th Annual Sport and Fitness School to the young sports enthusiasts of Acton, Georgetown and Milton. The programs are being run out of Acton, Georgetown and Milton District High Schools and are sure to be fun for all.

Other exciting, fun filled programs offered by the Recreation Department this summer are Day Camp, Summer Activities Centres, Tot Lot, Dramatic Arts, Les Activities Francals D'ete, and Experience Nature Camp.

We're still accepting registration in all of these programs so register now and avoid disappointment.

Parents be ready for some great fun on July 28th! All participants at summer activity centres and dramatic arts will present a special Vaudeville Night at 7:30 p.m. at Centennial Middle School.

Activity centers

The Halton Hills recreation department summer activity centres are now in progress. This year there is a summer activity centre at George Kennedy Public School, Georgetown and centres in Acton alternating weeks between McKenzie Smith Middle School and St. Joseph's Separate School.

The programs are full of exciting and challenging activities such as crafts, stories, games, movies and singing. Also included in this fun packed week are scheduled swims and a special event.

Each week the program is geared to a specific theme to which all activities are related. Children between the ages of five and twelve are encouraged to enroll in these action packed programs.

There are two highly trained leaders assigned to each site who are enthusiastic and eager to provide your children with a busy fun filled week. Half day (week long) and daily rates are also available. Register now!
