IN MEMORIAM

IN MEMORY OF TERRY

Terry was the caring kind
No better friend you could ever find.
The forties were the struggling years with ill health, and mother's tears
The fifties brought a happier song
For Terry Boden grew very strong
The sixties brought the prime of life
And then for Terry a loving wife.
The seventies dealt an awful blow
An increasing pain that would never go
Seventy-six brought a spark of light
When a newborn son, helped Terry fight.
The eighties brought the fading light
But Terry's will, would light this night
Still he tried, for life goes on
The pains grow stronger on and on.
Because of Terry's stubborn pride
The arthritic pains he would always hide.
Finally the sunset came in July
When Terry Boden said goodbye
Terry gave us all his best
His pain and soul we try to rest
But let's look back upon his life
The pain free years, and not the strife.
-Love Jan
