Alcott gals talking proud winning three

The Gordon Alcott Ladies "C" Inter-County tennis team did themselves proud by taking four matches from the James Gardens team Wednesday at home.

Lois Frazer and Trudy Roy went to three sets to win 2-6, 6-3, 6-3.

Carole MacLeod and Karin Wilson won their first set by a tie breaker, 7-6, and easily captured second set, 6-2.

Agnes Daniell and Norma Maynard had an easier time winning, 6-3, 6-1. Mary McEwen and Mavis Eastwood lost their first set by a tie breaker 6-7, but won next two sets 6-3, 6-3.

The last match for the Alcott "C" Ladies is on home courts next Wednesday against Swansea team.

A round robin with the North Halton tennis club and a wind up tennis part at the home of Lois Frazer are planned for later in August.

CHEQUEING OUT

Taylor homer not enough as Giants lose

Diane Taylor blasted a three-run home run, but it wasn't enough as the Blue Giants fell to Fobert's Real Estate, 8-6, in Kinsmen Senior Girls Softball League action last week.

Cindy Kemper was the outstanding player for the winning side, and Sandy Marshall turned in a solid effort on the mound.

Diana Westlake pitched for the Giants.

In other action, Young's Pharmacy downed Magnuson Insurance, 10-9.

Lillian Krascic was the hitting star for Young's, while Jane Papanhuyzen made a fine fielding play at second base.

Gall Mitchell starred for Magnuson's.

Cherie McElroy and Krascic shared the pitching duties for Young's, while Wendy Middleton threw for the losing side.

Tyke Giants win

Bill Tutt and Marc Smellie both blasted home runs to lead Golliger's Travel Giants to an 18-8 decision over the C.S. Printing Royals in Georgetown Baseball Association major tyke house league action last week.

Tutt, Smellie, Derek Treffrey and Jamie Rutherford all shared the pitching duties for the winning side.

Brad Tutt was named the outstanding player of the game.

Following is a complete report of last week's major tyke results.

ONE FOR ALL

The Glen Williams squirt girls of the Halton Rural Minor Softball Association want everyone to know they are No. 1. The girls accepted the league trophy Tuesday night, finishing the season the following night with a 21-5 win over Acton. The Glen girls were 19 wins and a single loss for the season. They are: (top, left to right) Sandi Weeks, Allison McGill, Stacey Hughes, Jill McCurdy and Stoban Izilo. (Middle) Coach Bob Weeks, Stephanie LeFlamme, Jill Windsor, Tammy Davidson, Lorraine Drake, Lisa Drake and Ron LaFlamme. (Front) Traci Weeks, Heather Keane, Laurie Gencsu, and Andrea Chatten. Julie Beochum was missing for the photo.

A-Team wins too

The Gordon Alcott Ladies "A" Inter-County tennis team took three of four matches from visiting Brampton Wednesday.

Pat Harris teamed with Doreen Thomson to win in straight sets, 7-5, 6-4.

Linda Rice and Isla Allison won 6-4, 6-2.

Marilyn Serjeantson and Mercille Taylor combined for a 6-1, 6-4 victory.

Kay King and Audrey Houston went down to defeat, 1-6, 3-6.
