

Fuel kids top Cubs

Casselman Fuel Angels 24 vs A.E. LePage Cubs 23
 The Angels came from behind winning this Georgetown Baseball Association T-Ball game in the last inning with a tremendous team effort. Andrew Ashenburt as pitcher, Krista Robertson in field, and David Langille at second base led the Angels defensively. Tara Gibson hit safely for a single and a double driving in four runs. Brad Friend, Rohan Kumar, and Mike Burns all had strong games for the Angels.

 The high-flying Cubs took it to the Angels in this well played game. The Cubs combined good hitting with a solid defence to give the Angels all they could handle. The defence was led by Jason Lanthier and Eric Arneson. Kevin Galway hit safely in each inning driving in five runs. Tracy Green and Tatum Nolan also had a good game at the plate. Paul Dwyer made an outstanding catch in the second inning to spark the Cubs.

Halton Credit Union Mets 27 vs Royal Canadian Legion Reds 25
 Five in a row for the Mets as they win another close game. The strong hitting was to much for the Reds as the Mets bats came alive in this game. Paul Ingram, Duane Astrauskas, and Cory Young led the Mets with hits. Sarah Hlsemann as backcatcher and Steven Carson as pitcher provided the defence needed. Graham Kennedy was slightly injured when hit by a ball at first base but recovered and had an excellent game.

 The Reds played as a team and gave it all they had in this last regular season game. David McEachern and Kerri Anne Van DeValk crashed out a series of hits to lead the Reds. Mary Hogan came up with a key hit in the second inning driving in two runs. Sean Parker, Trisha Humenicki, and Tracy Mory were the key defensive players holding the Mets up in each inning.

The Angels opened up a big lead in the second inning and then hung on to win the opening best-of-five playoff game. The Angel bats came alive in this game, especially David Langille, Mike Kotsos, and Sherie Peacock. The defence was led by Brad Friend in field, Ryan Hutchins as backcatcher, and Jenny Lorito at first. Mark Aldridge and David Kotsos hit safely in each inning.

The Cubs were on top of their defensive game but could not match the Angels in hitting. The defence was led by Jeff Lanthier and Scott Yates at first base. Kelly Campbell had another outstanding game contributing defence and scoring key runs. Mikey Sikova and Jay Duval hit safely in each inning driving in a total of five runs.
Halton Credit Union Mets 30 vs

Royal Canadian Legion Reds 29
 The Mets took the opening game of the playoffs, playing sound defence, and as a team. Steven Bewley was outstanding hitting safely in each inning and getting some key outs. Craig Matheson drove in three runs with his solid performance at the plate. Sarah Hlsemann, David Astrauskas and Ryan Chelak sparked the

Man on the street

How far will the Toronto Blue Jays go this season? Asked at the Ladies Powderpuff Softball Tournament at the Fairgrounds on Sunday.

Bill Kirby, Hewson Crescent - "They'll probably end up first in their division. They've got the weakest clubs in the division coming up in September. They've got good pitching. If they win their division, they'll win the pennant."

Mike Compton, Bain Court - "They'll finish about second or third in their division. The Expos are a lot better, and my Dad likes them better. I watch the Blue Jays games on television with my Mom."

Keith Bottomley, Acton - "They're going to come second to Baltimore. The Orioles have better pitching, more experience and more power. But if the Blue Jays win the division, then they will win the pennant."

Adam Stokes, Mill Street - "I think they're going to go all the way. They'll make it to the World Series. If they make it in against the Expos, it will be tight. The Jays are a good team, with good pitchers like Dave Stieb."

Ken Terry, Norval - "I think they will be third in their division. They don't have quite enough experience yet. They'll be right up there next season, but right now they aren't up to par in either pitching or hitting with a couple of the more experienced teams."
