

'Friendly' hairstylists open new shop

Those who want a haircut in a comfortable friendly atmosphere might want to try out United Hairliners at the Moore Park Plaza.

The two-man hairstyling operation opened August 9 for business. "Georgetown is a friendly neighborhood and this is a friendly hairstyling shop," owner Eric Schembri, 25, says.

Ho and his partner Toni Batane, 20, will be concentrating on service and personality with a touch of humour. "We're young operators and we understand what you'll want," Mr. Schembri says.

The newest hairstyling outlet in town was renovated with the help of Mr. Schembri's friends. The simple, stylish, yet "homey" atmosphere consists of chocolate brown barnboard, burlap-like wallpaper and light tan floor tiles.

Both Mr. Schembri and Mr. Batane are licensed to cut hair for men and women.

"In the time I've been here the people have been very friendly," he says.

Mr. Schembri was born and raised in Toronto, where he also trained in his profession at the Toronto Barber and Hairstyling school. He lives at Heart Lake, on the northern outskirts of Brampton.

Toni Batane has studied advanced hairstyling while Mr.

Schembri has been in the business for four years now.

Men's styles these days are going shorter but for the women, "anything goes", Mr. Schembri says.

Women often choose their hairstyle based on their careers, he says. Those who work at the office prefer a short and aussy cut - something that's easy to keep.

The famous cut now is the "bob" cut which recently won first prize at the hair show last spring at the Sheraton Centre in Toronto, he says.

The bob cut has a Cleopatra style with bangs usually at a shoulder or neck length, he says.

In his typically friendly way, Mr. Schembri says, "If people are satisfied they can tell others, if they're not satisfied, they can tell me."

Joan McKnight of Acton receives the royal treatment from the owner of the newly opened United Hairliners at the Moore Park Plaza. Eric Schembri has four years of hairstyling experience to share with customers.

Georgetown OPTIMIST CLUB

Armchair bingo

Starting Tuesday Sept. 6 at 6 p.m. and every Tuesday thereafter you can play bingo in your favorite armchair.

Yes, the Optimist Club is bringing bingo right into your living room via the local cable on channel 4.

There will be five games each Tuesday evening, three $25, one $50 and one $100. There will be extras and specials which will be explained on the show.

Prize money will be delivered the same night you win.

Cards are two for $1 good for the evening. These cards can be purchased at the following local merchants: Delrex Smoke Shop, Mac's Milk, Moore Park Plaza; Mac's Milk, Delrex and Guelph Street, Preston's in Glen Williams, Hi Neighbors Mini Mart, 110 Main St. South and Qulq Pik Variety and Gift Shop, 160 Guelph St. There may be more stores added if necessary.

The Optimist Club of Georgetown is operating this TV Bingo together with the Optimist Clubs of Acton and Milton. As Halton Cable covers all three towns it only made sense to play bingo in all three places and share the proceeds. Even though this is a tri club venture, our bylaws of Optimist International are still respected and enforced.

FREE PUBLIC SKATING

The money raised from our bingo project will help pay for the ice time that the Optimist club has booked for this coming season. All public school children and their parents, if they wish, will be able to have free skating at our local arenas.

All times will be 1 to 2:30 in the afternoon. We will have 7 P.A. days starting with Friday October 7 at Georgetown Memorial arena and ending March 26.

Christmas break and winter break will have the same - free skating from 1 until 2:30 p.m. One exception: Monday, Dec. 26 will be reserved for the kids who belong to the chicken club, their parents and their guests - so Dec. 26 will not be open to the general public.

All area schools will be notified about this program. A big thank you to Joy Gwilliam of the Recreation and Parks Department for her valued assistance.

This skating program is again proof, just as the day camp program is, that through the co-operation of the Recreation Department which is local government supported by your tax dollar and your local Optimist club which is supported by the money it raises through snack bar, food booth, TV Bingo, Bang-o-Rama, etc., which is volunteer dollars; things can happen for the good. Without the co-operation of the two neither program would have come about. The Optimist Club of Georgetown has put $2,000 directly into the Recreation Department program in 1983. With the continued support of the public we will endeavor to continue and hopefully expand on free activities for our youth.

GEORGETOWN FAIR

The Optimist Club will be very visible at this year's fair Sept. 9, 10 and 11. We will naturally operate the snack bar as we do every day from April 15 to Oct. 17. We will have our mobile food booth there with its chips, scrumptious hamburgers and hot dogs.

The fairboard has given us their blessing to operate a beer garden which will be located just west of the snack bar.

All proceeds from the beer garden will go to the "Lift for Georgetown High" fund which at present is at about $15,000. Soft drinks will be available in the 1,500 sq. ft. tent as well. It will be a great place to relax and have a bite to eat.

The 82-83 year will soon draw to a close. It has been a year of a lot of activity, a good fund raising year, in spite of the economy.

As a result the club was able to sponsor more community service projects, able to reach more kids and this club will press on to greater achievements, with the help and co-operation of the people of Georgetown.

The 1982-83 executive wishes to thank each and everyone who has helped the club in any way small or large over the past 12 months. It just makes us work harder when we see these positive results.
