Inter County playoffs

Specs take round one

The Glen Williams Specters may have shaken a very large monkey off of their backs in winning the first game of their Inter County Fastball League playoff series against Hillsburgh, 4-1, at the Glen Park on Tuesday night. Despite finishing four places higher in the regular season standings, the Specters were unable to garner a win against Hillsburgh in three meetings this year. However, this time around, the Glen men rode the six-hit, eight-strikeout pitching of Jeff Haines to victory.

The series best-of-five quarter final moved back to Hillsburgh for game two last night. Game three will be in the Glen Tuesday night, and game four, if necessary, will be in Hillsburgh next Thursday.

Pitcher Haines and designated hitter Glen McClure got the locals started in game one, both men connecting for RBI singles in the home half of the second inning. Third basemen Tim Field had reached on an error, and center fielder Jackie Bergman had singled to put runners at first and second.

After the visitors put one on the board in the next at bat, the teams battled through four scoreless innings, until the Glen men tacked on two more in the seventh.

Rob Hatcher doubled to deliver Andy Broadbent and Mike Reynolds who had both reached on errors.

Expos win 11-6

Jim Ashenhurst and Neil Pirie connected for home runs to lead the Co-Operators Expos to an 11-6 decision over the CSC Ltd. Astros in Georgetown Baseball Association major tyke house league action last week.

Chris Smith delivered a triple for the winners, and was named his team's outstanding player. Ashenhurst, Pirie and John Cruise shared the Expo pitching duties.

Following is a report on last week's action.

Gerry Caird of the North Halton Golf and Country Club lines up a putt during the 13th annual Ladies Invitational Tournament last week at the club. More than 130 golfers participated in the tourney, won by Brampton's Anne Adgar. Looking on here to make sure Caird's putt is lined up properly is caddy Christine Carter, 10.

Fobert's win

Lisa De Bonville and Donna Brown starred for first-place Fobert's Real Estate as they dumped the Blue Giants 9-6, in Kinsmen Senior Girls Softball League action last week.

De Bonville and Brown had excellent games both in the field and at the plate, while Sandy Marshall handled the Fobert's pitching duties.

Diane Taylor hit a home run for the Giants in a losing cause, and Diana Westlake was the losing pitcher.

In other Young's Pharmacy edged out Magnuson Insurance, 15-14.

Sylvia Piqueraz and Andrea Ford both had good nights at the plate for Young's, reaching base every time at bat. Lillian Krascic was the winning pitcher.

Debbie Ross and Jennie Lusby scored each time up for Magnuson Insurance, while Diane Frost made an excellent running catch in the outfield.

Chris Hooper and Wendy Middleton pitched for the losing side.
