Twenty windows were smashed over the Sept. 3 weekend causing $300 damage to Grainboard Manufacturing. Halton regional police said rocks were hurled at the River Road business from the roof.

Milk stolen

A milk lover lost control and pried a lock at the refrigerated storage container at the rear of the Acton IGA on Main Street North last week. Thirty cases of bagged milk worth $500 were stolen. There are 34 bags per case.

Mushrooms sabotaged

Damage is unknown but feared to be extensive at Quality Mushrooms Farm on Acton's Highway 25.

Halton regional police said it's suspected stove oil, a petroleum product was poured onto the mushroom beds overnight Sept. 6.

Suspects entered the farm by removing a screen from a small window at the front of the building and sliding a glass window. Five doors were covered with obscenity and racial slurs.
