Floodplain management

To the editor of The Herald:

We would like your readers to know that a Flood Plain Review Committee has been appointed by the ministry of natural resources to hold public meetings throughout the province for public input as to whether there should be a flood plain management programme in Ontario instituted by the province, or should individuals have the right to build wherever they wish at their own risk.

Property owners in your area faced with problems when they attempted to build on their land; or who have found their property has dropped in value; or who found it difficult to raise mortgage money; or who have run into other problems because of land use regulations imposed upon their property by the local conservation authority or the ministry of natural resources are strongly urged to check with their local M.P.P. to find out when the Flood Plain Review Committee will meet in their area in the months of September and October of this year.

For further information your readers may contact members of the executive of the Niagara Peninsula Flood Plain Fighters Inc. as follows: Mary Fox, 77 Sherwood Forest Trail, Welland, Ont. LEC 5K6; Phone 1-416-735-5999; or Stella Ziff, RR2, Stevensville, Ont. L0S 1S0; Phone 1-416-382-2320.

Sincerely,
Mary Fox,
Secretary

Citizens deplore attack

To the editor of The Herald:

This is a copy of a letter sent to the Soviet Embassy by Halton Hills Action for Nuclear Disarmament group:

Ambassador of the Soviet Union
285 Charlotte St.
Ottawa, Ontario,
K1N 8L5

Dear Mr. Ambassador:

We, the undersigned citizens of Halton Hills and area, are outraged at the shooting down of the Korean passenger jet. There can be no justification for attacking innocent civilians in an unarmed aircraft, by any civilized person or state.

Soviet leaders have professed their desire for world peace, but this action belies that avowal. If the Soviet Union is truly devoted to such an aim, we ask you to urge your leaders to make a clear demonstration of that desire at the nuclear arms control talks in Geneva.

Yours respectfully,
Brenda Kistner,
Eldon Comfort,
Ray Piercey,
Gwen Johnson,
and 150 others

MAC ATTACK

It's apple season, and orchards across the Halton Hills area have rolled out the bushel barrels and posted "Pick-Your-Own" signs at the front gate. Here, Rebecca Ferri, one and one-half years, samples a crop of McIntoshes at her father's Rainbow Valley Orchards north of Ballinafad on Trafalgar Road. Giving her a boost is her mother, Nancy. In co-operation with the Georgetown Chrysler Raiders, Rainbow Valley Orchards has cosponsored at Raider home games which will allow holders to pick up a bushel of McIntosh apples for only eight dollars.

Sheridan College graduates receive honors

To the editor of The Herald:

Please note the following correction on the name of one of four Sheridan College graduates to receive a scholarship to the New York Institute of Technology.

Paul Griffin, (Georgetown, Ont.), a graduate of both the Animation and Computer Graphics programs, and not Paul MacMillan, received the scholarship.

Information Sheridan, Sheridan College of Applied Arts and Technology

There were five local residents graduated from Sheridan College's continuing education, training and leadership development programs recently.

Jan Sandy graduated from a two year General Engineering Technician course. Margaret Hertz received a diploma in Early Childhood Education. Hans Rodenburgh, Daniel Zuraw and James Warrington all graduated with a certificate in Management Studies.

Wedding anniversary

By WINIFRED SMITH
Herald Correspondent
877-2000

Some of the regular worshippers were absent from the church service Sunday morning and they were missed, especially the children for the Sunday school classes.

Those present did hear their usually interesting little story from Rev. Bandy. He also had an enlightening message for the adults on "Evangelism". Mrs. Pat Kerr was organist for the service. Next week is World Communion Sunday.

The family of Norm and Alma Sinclair honored their parents Saturday, the occasion being their 40th anniversary. Relations and close friends were invited to share in the celebration which was held in the Ballinafad Community Centre.

The wedding party of 40 years ago were all able to be present. Relatives and old friends took turns in supplying music for dancing. During the evening a delightful lunch was served. The 15 little children present had a wonderful time. The couple received gifts of pinwheel crystal and pieces of fine china to add to a set of dishes and other gifts.

It was a happy occasion for all present and an evening enjoyment that will long be remembered. We extend congratulations to Alma and Norm and hope they may celebrate many more anniversaries in future years.

Congratulations to Gerry Clarke who has been taking prizes at local fairs with his shorthorn steer. The highlight of his winnings was receiving the Bennett Memorial trophy for total points in the Junior shorthorn show at the CNE.

Florrie Kirkpatrick from Belfast, Ireland, was a recent visitor with Floyd and Eda Shortill and family at their farm.

Frances Buckrell returned home Sunday after an enjoyable holiday in B.C. where she visited her daughter.

WORLD GOVERNMENT??

It has always been the ambition of those who seek power over their fellow men, to establish their control over the whole world. They refuse to acknowledge the rulership of Jehovah, the Almighty God of the universe.

When wickedness had come to its full Jehovah destroyed the then world with the flood of Noah's day. In due course when men again began to multiply on the earth, and all spoke one language, ambitious men again had dreams of power and, built the Tower of Babel, for said they, "Go to, let us build us a city and a tower, whose top may reach unto heaven; and let us make us a name, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth" (Gen. 11:4). But Jehovah put an end to their plans by the simple procedure of confusing their tongues so that they were divided into groups, each group speaking a different language, and, not understanding the languages of the other groups, they scattered abroad.

Nebuchadnezzar had a dream but could not recall it. Daniel told him his dream and interpreted it for him, saying: "Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; for wisdom and might are his: and he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding. . . . Thou, O king, sawest and beheld a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his thighs of brass, his legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. . . .

"Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. . . . and hath made thee ruler over all. Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potter's clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. . . . so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay.

"And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand forever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure" (Daniel, Chapter 2).

Thus Jehovah set up and gave power to Nebuchadnezzar, and those who should follow him, to rule the world until Jehovah should set up His own Kingdom on this earth, pictured by the stone cut out of the mountain without human hands. Nebuchadnezzar was king of Babylon, the head of gold, the first Gentile world power. Medo-Persia defeated Babylon, Greece defeated Medo-Persia, and Rome defeated Greece. But Rome, the kingdom of iron, mingled itself with the seed of men, the twelve tribes of Israel whom Jehovah had separated from the other nations to be His witnesses (Amos 3:2; Isa. 43:10). The twelve tribes comprise the two tribes of Judah, and the ten tribes of Ephraim the descendants of whom are the Anglo-Saxon-Celtic people. Because Jehovah had chosen these twelve tribes and separated them from the other nations they should have remained separate, but instead of that they made every kind of alliance with the Gentile powers and so, as the clay, they took from the strength of the feet and toes of the image and at the same time defiled themselves by becoming part of the image.

As the above shows we are living in the last days of Gentile rulership and the end of their power is imminent. At the present time communication throughout the world and the close contact the nations have with one another is equivalent to all nations being of one tongue. Again ambitious and powerful men, whose power today comes from their control of money, are telling the people of the world that world government is inevitable, nations cannot be recognized because all men are of one blood, so nations must submerge their sovereignty into a world government, even though Jehovah Himself divided men into nations (Deut. 32:8). These wicked men say that all religions are of equal value, Jehovah is not the Almighty God but is only one of the gods. They say we must have a world police force, a world court before which individuals and nations who will not submit can be brought for trial, a world parliament, a world bank, a world health organization, a world economic system, a world religion, and some of these institutions they have already established. They believe victory is assured to them.

Will they succeed? They cannot, for the times of the Gentiles have run out and the stone of Jehovah's Kingdom under Christ is about to strike the Gentile powers on the feet and destroy the entire image, sweeping the earth clean. Then the stone of His Kingdom will fill the earth, Jehovah's judgments and laws will be enforced and gladly recognized, and "when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness" (Isa. 26:9). No more will men learn wickedness, no more will wickedness and war abound, but there shall be peace and security for all of mankind. "They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain: for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea" (Isaiah, Chapter 11).
