Sixth Line neighbors 'shower' Judy

The Sacrament of Holy Communion was held Sunday. It was World Communion Sunday and the event was observed throughout the world. There was a fairly good attendance including the front row of children who listened attentively while Rev. Bandy told them in simple language why this special day and this special service was shared by the minister and the grown ups. Mr. Pinkerton was organist. Next Sunday being Thanksgiving, there will be some special music.

The community was saddened over the weekend when they lost a long time resident and one of their highly respected citizens, in the passing of Morgan Madill. His death occurred at his home after a lingering illness. We extend sympathy to his widow and other members of his family. Some of the families from the Ballinafad Church joined in with St. Andrews congregation Friday evening for the annual corn roast and dance. It was held at St. Andrews Church hall in Georgetown.

Some Sixth Line neighbors and other friends met one evening last week at the home of Mrs. Davis to honor a bride to be, Judy Roberts of Erin. It was in the form of a miscellaneous shower. Judy received many useful and practical gifts. She thanked all present. Congratulations to the newlyweds: Judy Roberts became the bride of Stephen Davis Saturday Oct. 1 at the Brampton Citadel.

The fall 4-H girls' homemaking club is well underway with 8 or 9 girls participating. This new club should prove quite interesting for the girls as it is on personal grooming, exercises and other beauty aids. Mrs. Helga Schwarz is leading the club with daughter Hellen assisting.

School exchange area reps sought

"Local representatives are being sought for ASSE, a non-profit high school exchange program," announced Boyce Director of ASSE. "Area reps are needed to screen-interview host families and recruit Canadian high school students to study in Sweden, Denmark, Norway, Finland, West Germany, Switzerland and Great Britain." ASSE is affiliated with the Swedish and Finnish Ministries of Education.

The ASSE exchange program enables qualified students to live with Canadian or European host families while attending local schools in order to learn from cultures other than their own.

Halton team in Ottawa

By KAY WILSON
Herald Correspondent
Young people from Halton region took part in the International Plowing Match in Ottawa-Carleton last week.

On the Halton team were Georgetown's Charles Bird, Acton's Phil Shea, Puslinch's Laurie Pickett and Burlington's Murray Brechon.

Barry Timbers of RR5 Milton placed second in the Ontario championship Saturday and William Huffman of Hagersville placed first. Both will take part in the Canadian Plowing Competition next June in the Peace River district of Alberta.

Susan Livingston of RR2 Georgetown is to be congratulated on a strong showing in the Queen of the Furrow competition. She was up against 33 competitors. Leanne Fraser of RR10, Brampton near Huttonville, represented Peel in the Furrow Queen competition and was one of the five finalists.

Tweedsmuir history and house logs were on display at the Tweedsmuir history meeting of the Brampton West Institute last week. Members saw the informative book prepared by Mrs. Isabel McKay illustrating her trip to Vancouver's A.C.W.W. convention in June.

"Something I remember on my way to school" was the roll call theme. Humorous and frightening incidents were recalled.

Mrs. Louise Upham gave the motto "The man who moved the mountain was he who began by carrying away the small stone." Adelaide Hoodless, George Washington Carver, John Howard and Banting and Best were noted as having worked hard toward their goals.

Mrs. Janet Anthony read an article on Canadian accomplishments. She was followed by the introduction of Jean Palmer.

Mrs. Palmer is a member of the March Stone Cross Institute formed in England in 1968. In the small market town of 14,000, March has three Institute groups. Recently the ladies succeeded in keeping a foot path open, by showing it was used and needed.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Norcen French, on Oct. 11 at 7:30 p.m.
