

Roadside tests for suspects

If you're driving along Highways 25, 7 and 5, be aware that Milton O.P.P. are keeping a close eye on these routes. Every Friday or Saturday night, police will be cracking down on impaired drivers by checking motorists between Acton, Georgetown and Milton.

If a police officer suspects a motorist has been drinking, he may request a roadside test be taken. If that test is failed, an arrest is made and the motorist must take a breathalyzer test at the station.

Orval's weather

WINTERS
COMING

Saturday and Sunday sunny and pleasant.

Rosanna Chlason offers a ticket in a game of chance, at Sacre Coeur Saturday. In a two day bazaar, many unusual and attractive items were sold. There was also a crown and anchor game, bingo and lots to eat and drink for the crowds.

STONE SCHOOL

Negotiations continue

Herald Special
Negotiations are continuing at a staff level for the town to purchase Acton's old Stone School from the Halton board of education, the mayor says.

Peter Pomeroy said staff have been directed to continue negotiations on the building which was Acton's original high school. Council will be brought into the picture once a firm price is known.

The building was declared surplus in 1982 and the board put it up for sale. Mayor Pomeroy said he is committed to purchasing the building for the town but the money for such a purchase might be put into the 1984 budget.

The board rejected the town's offer of $52,500 for the building and 1 1/2 acres of land but negotiations began after that offer was made.

Various community groups have indicated an interest in the building including the Leathertown Committee which suggested the site would be good for a town museum. —Courtesy Guelph Mercury
