

Premier Davis honors bowlers

ONTARIO AWARDS Georgetown bowlers were again recognized by Premier William Davis on "behalf of the people and the government of Ontario" this past week when they received an Ontario Championship Certificate "for outstanding achievement in the amateur sports field".

These special awards went to youth bowlers Teresa Maslach, Julie McCorry, Tracie Peggie, Jane Hicks, Kelly McCorry and Roberta Burke. Also recognized were the Y.B.C. supervisors and instructors Joan Archibald and young Wendy Chaplin "for those who have shown extraordinary interest and prowess" in the sport of bowling, and the amateur athletic development of Ontario.

MASTER-JUNIOR QUALIFIERS
The junior (12 - 14 years) YBC bowlers at Georgetown Bowl have finally achieved their first goal of the new season, teaming a boy and a girl with a member of the Master Bowlers Association in hopes of a provincial championship. The final team arrangements are: Julie McCorry and Chris Somers with "Master" Marg Bratkin, Trina Bassett and Barry McLean with Christopher Burke, Cindy Kavanagh and David Nicholson with Shirley Chaplin, Sandra Weeks and Marc Bassett with Roger Gervais, Denise Alton and Philip Hughes with Wendy Chaplin, Tracie Peggie and Mark Miller with Andy Parent, Teri Korzack and David Hicks with Ralph Miller and Leanne Burt and David Rice with Gord Lane.

Georgetown will be well represented at the Regional Finals November 8. Having captured the majority of the trophies in past years, and with much stronger teams this year, we expect another banner tournament.

Also, there is still room for more new bowlers to join and participate in house events and tournaments.
