Petrolia's Jim Mathews (8) fires the puck past Raider goalie Doug Dragasovich, for the Squires first tally Friday night. Georgetown defender John Saunders looks on helplessly as the puck bulges the mesh.

Peewees keep winning

The Georgetown North Halton Sports Camp Peewees ran their Tri-County Hockey League record to 4-0 with three easy victories the past week.

Last Saturday the Campers easily defeated a weak Streetsville team. The absence of Bill Tutt and Andrew Hoddinott was barely noticeable as Alan Gray and Doug Kent led the way with five points each, followed by Adam Bennett with four. Doug McDermott and Mike Wilkins collected three points while Chris Stoddart and Steven Sutherland scored two points a piece. Singles were earned by Cam Herman, Brent Presswood and Travis Gardiner. The shutout was shared by Sean Colton and Curtis Green.

Back on home ice Thursday evening against Dundas, Georgetown Sports Camp came out on top 5-2 in a poorly-played game. Mike Wilkins and Bill Tutt claimed two points each with singles going to Andrew Hoddinott, Travis Gardiner, Alan Gray and Adam Bennett. Though the referees neglected to award second assists, Doug McDermott continued his fine play as he was responsible for starting the first two goals.

On Sunday the Peewees played their best passing game of the year, claiming a 7-2 victory over Brampton. Doug McDermott again played well notching two points, as did Steve Sutherland, Adam Bennett, Doug Kent, Bill Tutt and Mike Wilkins. Singles went to Chris McCarthy, Andrew Hoddinott and Cameron Herman.

Sport bants take three

It was a great week for the Georgetown M and M Pro Sports major bantams, as they collected three Tri-County Hockey League victories.

Sunday, the Sports got a pair of goals and two assists from Terry Dixon, on their way to a 7-1 decision over Streetsville. Rob Cooper also counted a pair of goals, and he also earned an assist on Dixon's first of the night.

Tim Bennett, Paul Smith and Rory Kennedy all tallied once for the locals, while Jeff Amato earned three assists. Saturday, five players shared in the scoring as the Sports downed Oakville, 5-2.

Kennedy, Shawn Finn, Jim Manning, Mark Zebede and Cooper all found the range for Georgetown, with Dennis Doucette bagging a pair of assists. Kennedy had a big night last Thursday, scoring four goals to lead the locals to an 11-3 decision over Dundas.

Georgetown takes 'Battle of Halton Hills' Gems top crosstown rivals

In the first "Battle of the Hills", the Georgetown Gemini knocked off the Acton Sabres in Central Ontario Junior 'B' Hockey League play Friday in Acton. The game was a rough one as there was a total of 104 minutes in penalties, plus six game misconducts.

Acton got on the board first early in the opening period, when Mike Yelowica converted a pass from Ken Kavanagh and John Turner. Up to that point the play was very fast, as the teams took turns putting pressure on one another. After the Sabres goal, penalties dominated the period.

Georgetown tied the game at 1-1 on a power play goal, when Terry West scored one of his three on the night on passes from Chris Peavoy and Bill Bathgate. Acton recaptured the lead on their own power play goal off the stick of Vince Paradiso, assisted by Kavanagh and Karl Meyer, heading into the dressing room.

Early in the second period Georgetown tied the game at 2-2 when Bathgate scored on passes from Bob Davey and Peavoy, and then took the lead for good when West scored his second goal of the night on a short-handed effort. Peter Haller earned the assist. Play then became very rough when two fights broke out and four players were ejected.

Bathgate put the Gems up by two when he netted his second of the night, unassisted. Play then became wide open and key saves by Wayne Cowley kept Georgetown up by two. Terry West got his hat-trick on a power play goal, assisted by Bathgate and Dave Doucette. Georgetown went up by four goals on another power play, this time by Peavoy, assisted by Dave Doucette and Mrk Hamilton. Acton managed to get one back when Randy Coverdale rifled a shot past Cowley with a little help from Kavanagh and Meyer, as the period ended with Georgetown leading by a 6-3 score.

Purple gals win again

The Georgetown senior girls hockey team took their second win of the season by downing the visiting Oakville 'II' team.

Georgetown goaltender Joan Gilmer once again displayed her superior ability in net, as she was shelled by numerous shots throughout the game.

Oakville opened the scoring early in the first period but Georgetown stormed back to tie the game when Claire McDowell scored at the 5:18 mark. In the second frame the Georgetown girls continued to press hard, scoring three more unanswered goals.

Denean Jones scooped up a loose puck in front of the net to put Georgetown ahead, 2-1, on a power play marker. With four minutes remaining, Allen tacked on her second goal for the night and a minute later Allen assisted Dianne Taylor on a low hard shot from the blue line, rounding out the local scoring. The final period remained scoreless as the girls got solid back-up from goalie Gilmer, ending the game with a 4-1 win.

Pulp and Paper Reports:
Who Else Makes Paper
Ninety-three countries produce pulp, or paper, or both. Of these, 61 (including Canada) make enough to sell to other countries.
It is true that Canada by itself produces one third of all pulp and paper sold in world export markets. It is also true that Canadian mills and paperworkers set world standards for quality.
But the hard fact is, additions to pulp and paper manufacturing capacity are being built all over the world. Competition is tough out there.
Canada's industry is continuing to invest in updated and more efficient mills and other facilities to keep costs down.
The competition for world markets will be won by the low-cost producers.
